ZENITH

Superintendent's Foreword

IN the face of the death and destruction of the second world war, the education of our youth continues to go forward. In this life-and-death struggle for existence three things must be preserved: the American home, the American Public School, and American ideals of freedom of worship.

To an American, his "rights" are a very dear inheritance. In peace he may ignore or disregard them, but any threat to their existence will bring him charging to their defense.

Future historians will record the fact that 1943 was a year in which Americans gave up their money, their luxurious comforts, and their lives in defense of the democratic way of life.

We in the Public School are carrying on and moving forward. In this edition of the Zenith, we have portrayed this effort by word and picture. May I extend greetings and best wishes to all who read this book.

Seniors

NORMAN S. DELLNER

President

Straight blond hair that sticks out in front and up in back prompted Norm to get a "heinie," and from that day on he has been known as "Burrhead." Such a happy-go-lucky lad at times, and yet so serious underneath, he'll soon be doing his bit with the Air Corps.

MILDRED CAROLYN BLACK

Secretary

A great fun lover and a great fun creator, Mil can look so angelic when some "unknown" person tells a hilarious joke and causes an uproar in class. It seems impossible that such a little girl can possess so much charm and vitality and so many talents.

JOHN E. BATCHELOR

The youngest boy in our class, commonly addressed as "Batch," makes the other seniors beam by laughing at their corny jokes. This good-natured youth is usually laden down with work for this and that, but he always has a smile for everyone.

JEAN ALICE HODGSON

Vice President

Rather inclined to be solemn, perhaps a bit too sober-minded at times, Jean can nevertheless be gay and flippant when she wants to. Her sarcastic remarks and her black looks are not meant to be taken seriously, for they are all in a spirit of fun.

DONN MOWEN NICHOLS

Treasurer

"I don't believe it," cynical Donn, the mathematical genius and the Grantland Rice of the senior class, often remarks. Perhaps it is his facility with figures that won him the office of treasurer so many times.

GERTRUDE E. BEATTIE

Just an overgrown kid at heart, Gert never misses out on any fun. Her musical talents come in handy every once in a while, and she is always ready, willing, and able to help anyone out of a tight spot. Sometimes she finds it a bit hard to settle down and be serious, but then we're only young once.

MARIE CLAUDIA FEIHL

Tall, dark, and lovely, Marie remains calm through any crisis. A leader in school affairs, she scoops out ice cream at Spiece's or rides merrily around town in her little green Plymouth "Agnes" after the four o'clock bell rings.

HAROLD L. STONEMAN

Dear old Stoney is well-schooled in the art of making excuses and beating around the bush. The class of 1943 would be lost without his "jive" talk and his side-splitting jokes.

ARLINE RUTH MILLER

This vivacious blond with the vibrant personality is a shot in the arm to any dull class. A clever actress, Arline really gives her all when she is up on the stage. She finds time to be a charming hostess, and many's the time the gang gathers down at Millers' for cokes and capers.

GEORGE C. ENSLEN

George's smooth manner and his classy clothes make everyone stop and take notice. Tall, handsome, and agile, he can really go to town out on the dance floor; and because of this he is an extremely popular lad.

ELEANOR RUTH LEWIS

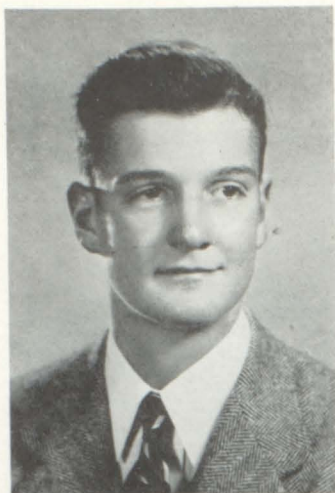

"Teenys'" pretty face with its startled brown eyes is framed by a halo of soft, curly hair. Her nimble fingers can provide her with a complete handmade wardrobe which rivals that of Wanamaker's.

JAMES ALLEN WOODWARD

Laughing one moment and serious the next, Jim is a great debater and often takes the opposite side just for the sake of an argument. In four years he has worked up from water-boy to manager of the football team.

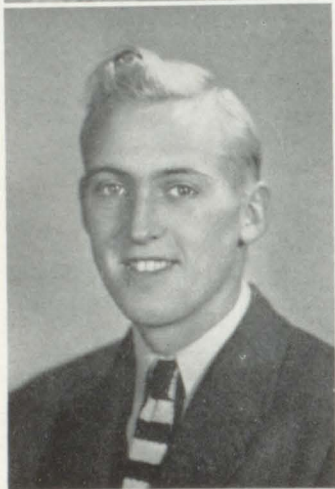

RALPH MILTON BEATTIE

This dark, dashing senior, who always sounds as if he were using a megaphone, uses his hearty voice to good advantage on the stage. People know him by his customary greeting, "Hello there!" He has been sorely missed since he left Chagrin at the end of the first semester to enter Ohio Wesleyan University.

ELIZABETH K. SARGENT

This sprightly lass with the sparkling eyes has more nicknames to her credit than any other '43 senior, and you may hear her referred to as "Squeaky" or "Sarge" or what have you. Never a dull moment when she's around!

CHESTER W. HAHN

Chet's witty remarks keep us rolling in the aisles, to the consternation of some of the teachers. Nonchalant in school, "Buzz" is quite a different boy on the basketball floor and the football field, where he plays a spirited game.

DOROTHY JANE SINDELAR

Such grace the young lady possesses and such rhythm that cheer leading comes to her with apparent ease. And of course dancing and the love of music go right along with the rest. Always appreciating a good joke, Dot thinks up a great many herself to spring on her innocent pals.

H. CLINTON TAYLOR

"Yea, team!" Clinton's bass voice, a little louder than all the rest, really cheers the boys on to victory in basketball. Generous, amiable, and rather happy-go-lucky, he is a likable fellow and everyone's pal.

MARGARET H. CROWEL

Swish! And "Maggie" sinks another long shot from the middle of the basketball floor. What a gal! Certainly she is forgiven for all the times she has gently tripped her unsuspecting pals as they hurried down the hall.

IRENE LAVERNE LANE

Jolly, joking Irene, a wonderful entertainer, sings exceptionally well and acts even better, especially in character parts. Our class would not be complete without her abundance of talents and energy.

HARRY FRANCIS BROOKS

"Baldy," our star athlete, is a spirited young man and a great favorite with everyone. His constant joking and his clever remarks keep us all in stitches, and his dancing specialties make him the life of every party.

NELLA MAY KREBS

"Sister, can you spare a dime?" And Nella always can lend some odd cash or a helping hand to anyone in need. Her lofty stature makes her a super guard and an even better forward on the senior girls' basketball team.

LEONARD EARL WILSON

"Smile and look at the birdie, please." Leonard is about to snap your picture!" Our photography editor for the Zenith also had something to offer as Uncle Mervin in June Mad and Noel Derby in The Goose Hangs High.

RUTH LEE STEWART

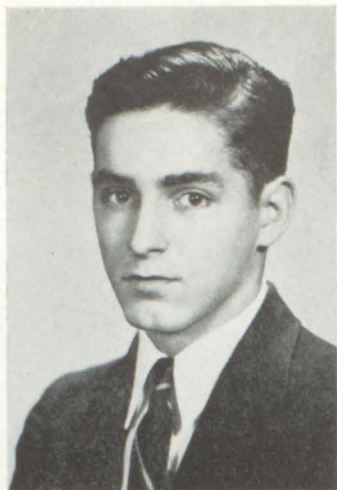

Ruthie's intriguing Pennsylvania accent is the object of a lot of good-natured kidding, but this pert little maid with the dark wavy hair and the big brown eyes takes it all in the light manner in which it is given.

GLEN CARL SCOTT

His slow drawl and his equally leisurely gait make Glen stand out wherever he goes. Never passing up the chance for a good argument, he can often be heard in economics class vociferously defending the farm bloc or some other worthy cause. A newcomer this year, he is now "good old Glen" to everyone.

ROBERT DONALD SZITAR

Dark and quiet, Bob spends most of his time thinking about airplanes. He has the honor (if it is an honor) of being the only boy in Miss Carroll's second period English class.

KATHERINE E. HIMLER

"Kutch," as she is fondly called by her many friends, always looks on the bright side of life and spends a great deal of the time laughing and making others laugh with her. Oh, to be always young and gay!

RICHARD ALLEN GREED

"Now I'll tell you, kids. The one that's really solid on the sax is—" Yes, Dick knows all the answers when the questions have anything to do with popular bands and their music. No wonder this handsome lad with the friendly manner is so well-liked.

IRENE MAE FARRAR

Cheerful and gay with everyone no matter what the circumstances, Irene has made countless friends because of her even temperament. A warm smile from one you know gives a lift to the heart.

DAVID WAYNE NEWTON

A quiet fellow, Dave gets around a lot, but never talks much about it. Being quite a handsome and friendly lad, he doesn't go unnoticed, but is a friend to many.

DORIS LORENE ROOD

Dode's jollity is carried out even to her jingling rings and bracelets. When one of her classmates feels a trifle down in the mouth, she makes the world seem brighter by serving a little sunshine with sodas she "jerks" at the Standard Drug.

FRANCES HELEN MARTELL

Generous with that shy smile of hers, Frances has made new friends every day in C.F.H.S. from the time she came here as a sophomore. Quiet, courteous, and efficient, she serves as a steadying influence in the class.

JAMES RITCHEY KERNS

General handyman for the plays, Jim is backstage during every entertainment to take care of lighting and properties. Perhaps a bit more serious than the rest of us, he nevertheless frequently enjoys a good laugh. A friend to all, he is forever toting everyone's books back to the library where he works after school.

ELEANOR FAIRWEATHER

"Nicky," the lass with the beautiful smile, can really make the pencil fly when it comes to taking dictation in shorthand. A native of North Dakota, she came to Chagrin in the sixth grade; and from that time on she has been one of the gang.

PEGGY MARIE DOBSON

Who can help but cast an envious eye on Peggy's curly locks? A pretty lass with a fiery spirit, she is always ready to stick up for her rights. The characters she portrayed in the junior and senior plays were right up her alley.

JOHN HARVEY

Though he very seldom talks out, "Harve" has a keen sense of humor that makes all those who sit near him in classes chuckle. An earnest worker, he is always more than willing to do his share of the work.

RUTH LOUISE SMITH

"Elegance and propriety" (to borrow a phrase from the operetta) are two qualities Ruth possesses. A merry individual, she is laughing more often than not, putting everyone near her in good spirits.

IRENE LOUISE SINDELAR

Speaking hardly above a whisper, "Sindy" believes that children should be seen and not heard. Every day she wears a different pin from her collection of over four hundred. She always looks immaculate, even down to her fingertips which are usually painted to match her outfit.

ROBERT ALLEN COHN

Quiet as a mouse and shy as a deer, Bob is all the more liked by everyone who knows him. He takes good-naturedly a lot of friendly kidding from the girls in bookkeeping class.

PEARL ESTHER PEKAREK

Pearl's initials and her whole way of life spell "Pep" with a capital "P." Her artistic cleverness keeps her always in demand for illustrating class play and dance posters and book reports.

JENNIE KAREN KOIVISTO

Fair-haired, blue-eyed, and rosy-cheeked Jennie possesses that blond Scandanavian beauty. A good share of the time she can be seen laughing and chattering with her bosom friend Pearl Pekarek. Every noon she dishes out our rations at the school cafeteria.

HAROLD DAVID SCHULTZ

Harold usually keeps his deep and profound thoughts to himself. This quiet senior lad's chief interest is entomology (or just plain bugs), and he is proud to show any interested bystander all of his scrapbooks on the subject.

PHYLLIS B. KOFSKY

Phyllis's most outstanding feature is her snapping black eyes, whose jet-like quality is further emphasized by her fair complexion. A quiet lass, she never bothers anyone and speaks in class only when answering the teacher's questions.

ELSIE MAY BANKS

This tall, willowy maiden, whose quiet manner is in direct contrast with her flaming red hair, is a good student, but isn't the type to brag about it. Whenever there is any typing to be done, Elsie is the one who willingly does it.

ELLIOTT KOFSKY

Elliott, that cheerful lad, always keeps a smile on his face although he is the brunt of a good many jokes. Free from care, he faces each day with a "take-life-as-it-comes" attitude.

WINIFRED L. SCHEFFLER

Neat as a pin, outwardly calm and collected at all times, Winnie is a good example for all of us to follow. Almost unfailingly she is assigned the task of making the tickets for the school plays and dances, a job which she does without complaint.

KATHRYN JANE TRUMAN

A smile so charming is one of Kay's assets. Coming here from Bedford early this year, she soon made a host of friends. Now everyone knows the girl with the dark brown hair and the pale blue eyes.

History

THE history of the class of '43 is a thick and heavy volume. Its first pages are turning a bit yellow from time, and the edges are frayed by the thumbs of memory which time and again have fingered the leaves to recall the day we first set foot in the halls of learning.

As we slowly turn the dusty pages, we come upon a review of our first public performance: an operetta staged when we were fourth graders. We amazed both the audience and ourselves by this production.

The next few pages are filled with the usual childhood pranks and scrapes until we come to a page ablaze with red letters: the page recording the day we entered the high school building as seventh graders. As many had done before us, we learned the hard way that upperclassmen, especially seniors, expected us to be seen and not heard, and then seen as little as possible.

Time passed all too swiftly however, and on the next page we find a review of our very successful junior play, June Mad. Following closely on the next page there is another review of the senior play, The Goose Hangs High. Not to be overlooked on these two pages are a few words written in praise of our students' performances in the high school operettas.

As we turn the last printed page, a pressed rose falls out beribboned with our class colors, blue and gold, which are the last fond memories of our high school days—the prom and graduation.

The pages which follow are as yet blank, to be filled in by the future. The next few years will find us separated into the four corners of the globe, but let us hope that our fortunes will make interesting and happy reading in the history of the class of 1943.

Prophecy

IT is the year 1963 and bank night at the Falls Theatre, which has already expanded to nearly one hundred times its original size. From their balcony seats Gertrude Beattie, home from New York where she plays the organ in the Riverside Church, and Jean Hodgson, knitting instructress at Zipp's Clothing House, are waving and "yoo-hoo-ing" to all their former classmates as they come in. A murmur of awe arises from the crowd when they see, daintily tripping down the aisle, Madame La Lane of the Metropolitan Opera, followed by her docile chauffeur, Elliott Kofsky. Harold Schultz, clad in a Mexican costume and equipped with a tiny flashlight, is ushering in Jim Kerns, who has recently been studying in Europe to prove his theory disproving Einstein's theory. Leonard Wilson, who has won the Soap Box Derby for the twenty-first consecutive year, made a date for the movies with Kay Truman, just for old time's sake. And here is Jim Woodward, the golden-voiced tenor, singing with Dick Greed's dance band. (Dick has just captured the title of "King of Corn" from Spike Jones.) With Jim is the Reverend R. M. Beattie, professor of theology at Ohio Wesleyan University, and two of his star pupils, John Harvey and Winnie Scheffler. Next to enter are those two Florence Nightingales of the Class of '43, Jennie Koivisto and Pearl Pekarek, who are just back from the Orient where they have been giving first aid to the Mongols in the Mongol-Chinese War. Dot Sindelar, head of the "Light on Your Corns" Dancing School for the past fifteen years, got into the movie free because of her friend Marie Feihl. Marie gets passes for advertising the weekly shows in the window of her bakery. Lumbering down the aisle is Glen Scott, newly appointed manager of the Chagrin Falls Easy Sleep Mattress Company, Inc. This is a carry-over from his high school career. A violent argument seems to be in progress at the ticket office. Further investigation reveals that Betty Sargent and Eleanor Lewis, clerks at Dave Newton's 5c to $1 store, are having a set-to with the manager of the Theatre (none other than H. L. Stoneman) because they think they should still get in for a dime. A grand entrance is made by General Hahn and Admiral Brooks. We always knew they would get places. Nella May Krebs, president of the soda jerkers' union of the Standard Drug Company, hurries down to the front row. Her eyes have become a little strained from measuring out ice cream so exactly. Clinton Taylor and Margaret Crowel, sitting on the right, pooled their talents and are now operating the You Break 'Em Down, We Build 'Em Up Athletic School. We hear that Elsie Banks and Bob Cohn attend thrice weekly. Phyllis Kofsky dashes down from the beauty shop she operates upstairs to say hello to the gang. Enters Norm Dellner in overalls and a plaid shirt. After graduating from Iowa State Agricultural School he took up truck gardening and is now supplying Chagrin with rotten fruits and vegetables. A warm greeting is given to Kutch Himler and Dode Rood, for they are passing out cream puffs fresh from the kitchen of their restaurant on Main Street. Those two inseparable pals, Arline Miller and Mildred Black, are looking for seats in the middle section. Arline, teacher in the grade school, has just told a "killer" of a joke, and Mil is trying to suppress a giggle. She operates a charm school in Orange Village, and rumor has it that the fees she charges for George Enslin's lessons practically keep the place going. Looking very important, Donn Nichols, of the Nichols & Sons Insurance Company, enters and takes a seat in the loges. Close behind him is his private secretary, Eleanor Fairweather. Bob Szitar, flying instructor at the Chagrin Airport, is down out of the clouds long enough to enjoy an evening with his old school chums. Sitting on the left are Irene Sindelar and Ruth Smith. Irene is running a novelty shop and Ruth is happily married to a New York millionaire. One of the late-comers is Peggy Dobson, who is now doing a tight-rope act in the circus. Irene Farrar, who is married and lives on a farm, and Frances Martell, bus driver on the Chagrin Falls Line, are having a hard time trying to keep Irene's twins, Zeke and Jose, quiet. Ruthie Stewart, a successful model at Halle's, is kindly offering suggestions.

Sh! A hush falls over the audience. The name of the winner of the $100 is about to be drawn. Who is called? None other than Jack Batchelor. But where is he? Don't fret. He'll arrive in approximately five minutes, but too late to get the money. How's this? Isn't Jack always on time?

Our reunion is chaperoned (do we still need chaperones?) by Miss Elsa Jane Carroll, who is now head of the English department of Chagrin Falls High School. Mr. Jones could not be with us tonight, for he is visiting his son Evan in California.

Class Will

WE, the senior class of nineteen hundred forty-three, being of sound mind and questionable mentality, do hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

Article I. To the jovial juniors we do will and bequeath our beloved teacher, critic, advisor, and friend, Miss Elsa Jane Carroll. May she inspire them to greater heights of learning.

Article II. To the socially-minded sophomores we do will and bequeath the privilege of attending the three annual class dances, sincerely hoping that a greater percentage of their boys will turn out to "swing it" than did of ours.

Article III. To the frolicsome freshmen we do will and bequeath our ability to create an uproar in classes.

Article IV. To our cherished faculty we do will and bequeath all the knowledge they have drilled into us, which they in turn shall drill into next year's classes.

Article V. To the school at large we do will and bequeath the memory of our dear, smiling faces.

Sec. 1. Elsie Banks does will and bequeath her quiet and reserved manner to Betty Lou Imars.

Sec. 2. Jack Batchelor does will and bequeath his cheerful grin to Dick Drew.

Sec. 3. Gertrude Beattie does will and bequeath her claim to a "bachelor" to a seventh grade boy.

Sec. 4. Ralph Beattie does will and bequeath his ability to be heard from one end of the county to the other to Keith Smith.

Sec. 5. Mildred Black does will and bequeath her flawless appearance to Willard Felger.

Sec. 6. Harry Brooks does will and bequeath his brawny build to Stewey Leeb.

Sec. 7. Robert Cohn does will and bequeath his aggressiveness to anyone who needs some, if there be such a person.

Sec. 8. Margaret Crowel does will and bequeath her athletic ability to Betty Bowers.

Sec. 9. Norman Dellner does will and bequeath his good health to Sheila Downe.

Sec. 10. Peggy Dobson does will and bequeath her quick temper to Louie Kulscar.

Sec. 11. George Enslen does will and bequeath his fatal fascination to George Danciu.

Sec. 12. Eleanor Fairweather does will and bequeath her seat on the Bell Road bus to anyone willing to fight for it.

Sec. 13. Irene Farrar does will and bequeath her dependability to Jeanne Hensley.

Sec. 14. Marie Feihl does will and bequeath three inches to Marion Stoneman.

Sec. 15. Dick Greed does will and bequeath the two-inch stubble on his chin to Bill Winship.

Sec. 16. Chet Hahn does will and bequeath his happy-go-lucky attitude to Jim Brower.

Sec. 17. John Harvey does will and bequeath his manly physique to Jack MacRitchie.

Sec. 18. Katherine Himler does will and bequeath her contagious laugh to Charlie Benbow.

Sec. 19. Jean Hodgson does will and bequeath her serious outlook on life to Bob Clemens.

Sec. 20. Jim Kerns does will and bequeath his title of the "mad scientist" to Bob Selleck.

Sec. 21. Elliott Kofsky does will and bequeath his typing ability to Bert Hoopes.

Sec. 22. Phyllis Kofsky does will and bequeath her long walk home to Wanda Reed.

Sec. 23. Jennie Koivisto does will and bequeath her brown flannel slacks to Nancy Gleason in order to carry out the fad.

Sec. 24. Nella May Krebs does will and bequeath her mammoth purse to Dorothy Sasak to sleep in.

Sec. 25. Irene Lane does will and bequeath the privilege of carrying on a correspondence with twelve soldiers to Patty Crain.

Sec. 26. Eleanor Lewis does will and bequeath her petiteness to Wayne Wilson.

Sec. 27. Frances Martell does will and bequeath her Pepsodent smile to Don Squire.

Sec. 28. Arline Miller does will and bequeath her graceful gait to Carolyn Beattie for the sake of contrast.

Sec. 29. David Newton does will and bequeath the secret of his wavy hair to any female offering a fair price.

Sec. 30. Donn Nichols does will and bequeath his red plaid basketball pants to any up-and-coming star.

Sec. 31. Pearl Pekarek does will and bequeath her artistic ability to Fat Smith in the hope that some day he will be able to "draw" a beautiful girl.

Sec. 32. Doris Rood does will and bequeath her loyalty to the army to Uncle Sam's nephews in khaki.

Sec. 33. Betty Sargent does will and bequeath one French book, with complete translation written in, to any interested student.

Sec. 34. Winifred Scheffler does will and bequeath her extra study halls to Frances Hine to be used to the best advantage.

Sec. 35. Harold Schultz does will and bequeath his bangs to Beverly Carzoo.

Sec. 36. Glen Scott does will and bequeath his initiative to Joel Smith.

Sec. 37. Dorothy Sindelar does will and bequeath her cheer-leading talents to Mary Jean Wilson to carry on the C.F.H.S. spirit.

Sec. 38. Irene Sindelar does will and bequeath her green nail polish to the school for any necessary paint jobs.

Sec. 39. Ruth Smith does will and bequeath her shyness to Xenil Jefferson.

Sec. 40. Ruth Stewart does will and bequeath her cute little accent to Genevieve Busch, who shall preserve it for her.

Sec. 41. Harold Stoneman does will and bequeath his collection of alibis to be bound into a volume for future reference in the library.

Sec. 42. Robert Szitar does will and bequeath his handsome features to Forest Felger.

Sec. 43. Clinton Taylor does will and bequeath his fog-horn voice to Gerry Lowe to help her get the news around faster.

Sec. 44. Kathryn Truman does will and bequeath her giggle to Dick Carleton.

Sec. 45. Leonard Wilson does will and bequeath his collapsible Chevy to the nearest junk dealer.

Sec. 46. Jim Woodward does will and bequeath his vocal chords to be used as an air raid siren in Chagrin Falls.

Juniors

THE class of 1944 completed the eleventh year of their education with flying colors. The juniors contributed leaders to all school organizations, and they were well represented in athletics.

With such material the seniors-to-be are certain of holding up the high standards of C.F.H.S. in the coming year.

In the social line they sponsored the Junior-Senior Football Dance with the seniors and planned and put on the Junior-Senior Prom at the close of the year.

Sophomores

IN this year of great happenings in the history of the world, we like to look back and know that the sophomores played a big part in the 1943 history of Chagrin Falls High School.

Many in the sophomore class were tried and found worthy of being leaders, and many more were discovered each day. We feel that in the years to come, many members of our class will have found distinguished places for themselves in this world.

This year we become an organized group; and working together, we held our first dance, took important parts in the operetta, and joined all the organizations in school.

You will see great things from this class of 1945!

Freshmen

HOW time does fly! Just a few years ago we were in knee pants and pigtails, but look at us now! We are really a part of the high school crowd.

The class of 1946 takes this opportunity to express their appreciation to the upper classmen for their friendly and congenial interest and to the lower classmen for their dutiful compliance to our kind advice. Last, but not least, our thanks go to our teachers for their attempt to urge knowledge through our impervious craniums.

Eighth Grade

NOW, on the eighth rung of the ladder of education, we feel very grown-up and wise indeed. It seems long ago that we kissed our parents a fond farewell and took that step on the first rung; actually it has been only eight years since our first day of school. During that time old friends have left and new have taken their places.

As the years go by, the rungs of our ladder seem to be farther and farther apart, but somehow we manage to keep climbing upward. Now we face the future undaunted by the dizzy heights above us.

Seventh Grade

FIFTY-EIGHT little seeds were planted in the garden of knowledge in the fall of 1936. Many beloved teachers have tended these seedlings and have prepared them for the adventures to come. They have all played a part in the education of the flowers which will bloom in 1948.

These gardeners in seven years have carefully and patiently weeded out problems and troubles from young minds. Some of the seeds have been transplanted to other gardens, and new seedlings have come to take their places in the fertile grounds of Chagrin Falls School.

The tender young plants are striving to live up to the ideals set before them, not only in educational aspects, but in social life as well, as they grow into blooming flowers, the future men and women of 1948.

Echo Staff

EDITOR of Echo for 1942-43 was Frances Hine, who took over in her sophomore year and since that time has proved herself extremely capable. She was aided by Walter Burnett, assistant editor, who carried his share of the responsibility. The two "right-hand men" were Miss Charlotte J. McKenna and Miss Irene Dates, who kept things running smoothly.

The members of the staff improved their style, increased their vocabulary, and acquired a genuine interest for newspaper work.

Girl Reserves

FOR the twenty-first successive year the Girl Reserve Club has been an active organization in Chagrin Falls.

Under the advisorship of Miss McCleery, assisted by Miss Dates and Miss Neff, almost sixty girls have enjoyed our business and social meetings. Mrs. Sands and Mrs. Gurney continue to be our patronesses.

Hi-Y

THE Hi-Y Club of Chagrin Falls High School was organized in 1934 and was affiliated with the National Y.M.C.A.

This year the organization has been active not only in school affairs but also in community scrap drives and Civilian Defense campaigns.

Our faculty advisor for 1942-43 was Mr. Russell Casebolt.

Girls' Glee

DURING eighth period on Tuesdays and Thursdays harmonious sounds emanated from the music room. The girls of the junior and senior classes were singing their favorite old songs and learning delightful new ones.

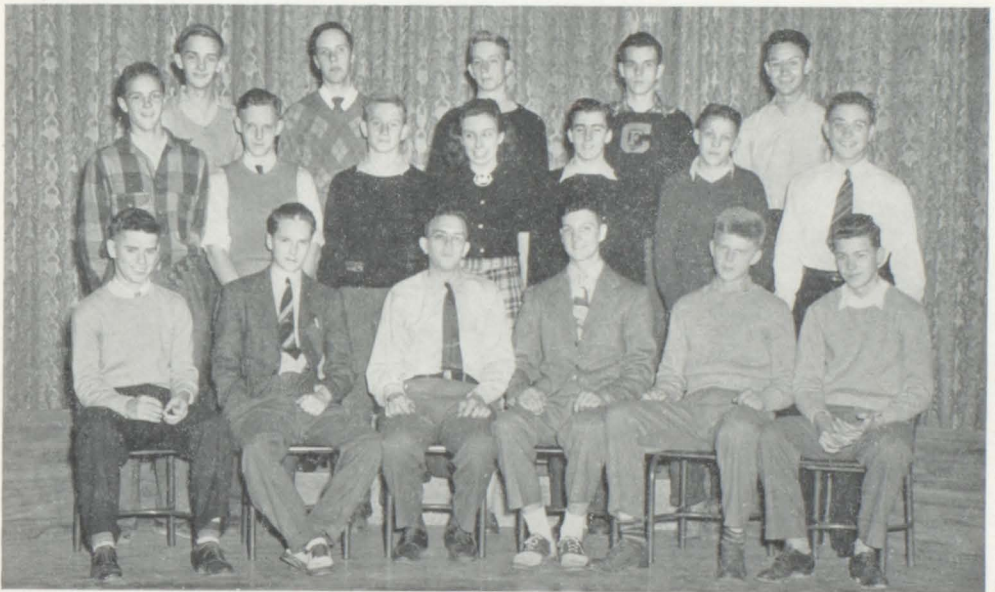

At the beginning of the second semester we began work with the three other glee clubs on the operetta, "The Count and the Coed," which we presented with heart-warming success on the evening of March 26.

Boys' Glee

THE Boys' Glee Club is justly proud of their contribution to the operetta this year. Five members of this organization sang leading roles, and the rest added their lusty voices to the chorus.

The boys wish to thank Miss Schaufelberger for so patiently directing them and for making this work in music so fascinating.

9th and 10th Girls' Glee

WITH the assistance of Miss Mary Alice Schaufelberger the ninth- and tenth-grade girls have more than enjoyed their association together in the past year.

The pleasure we received from our participation in the operetta and the spring festival made worth-while the effort we put forth to improve our knowledge and skill in the art of music.

9th and 10th Boys' Glee

"MUSIC is the Universal Speech of Mankind."

So says the poet; and so our youthful voices echo, a la fortissimo.

The boys of the Freshman-Sophomore Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Schaufelberger, have shown great interest in their work. In fact, instead of closing our session at the end of our allotted fourth period, we generally continued singing lustfully on into the noon lunch period.

During the past year we have participated in the operetta, a high school assembly, and the annual spring concert.

Honor Society

THE Honor Society was first started in 1934 under the leadership of Mr. Rice. Membership is determined by a student's scholarship, service, leadership, and character.

The club had a capable new advisor this year in Miss Nye; and although our activities were few, we were able to buy pins for the members of two semesters' standing.

Biology Club

THE Biology Club is composed primarily of pupils in the biology class. Its purpose is to create outside interest and activities in science.

This year, because of transportation difficulties, no trips were planned except those within walking distance. However, several interesting speakers were heard at the meetings.

The club is under the guidance of Miss Woodruff, the science teacher.

Band

1943 marked the eighth year in the history of the Chagrin Falls School Band. It was in 1935 that a small group of students met in the old cafeteria on Saturday mornings to practice their music.

The last eight years have seen the organization continually expanding, not only in numbers but also in instrumentation.

BACK ROW: Robert Clemens, Danciu, F. Lowe, Beattie, Hine, Richard Clemens, Hastings, Stem. SECOND ROW: Winship, Lane, MacRitchie, Taylor, Hoopes, Roeder, Green, Davidson. FIRST ROW: Stoneman, Spielhaupter, Kagy, McIntyre, Dunton, J. Lambert, Root, E. Lambert, G. Lowe, Felger, Sasak.

Orchestra

EACH year, under the able directorship of Mr. Freeman, the orchestra becomes better organized and more experienced. This year we have hit an all-time high in the quality of our music. The junior and senior plays, the operetta, and the annual concert were made much more enjoyable by the participation of the orchestra.

G. A. A.

UNDER the leadership of Miss Gillespie and Miss Maul, the G.A.A. enjoyed another full year of activity. Our all-star basketball game and our annual G.A.A. banquet and dance were the high points in our program.

Hard play and good sportsmanship will lead next year's G.A.A. members in a fight for the trophy, which the class of 1943 has won for two consecutive years.

Boys' Athletic Council

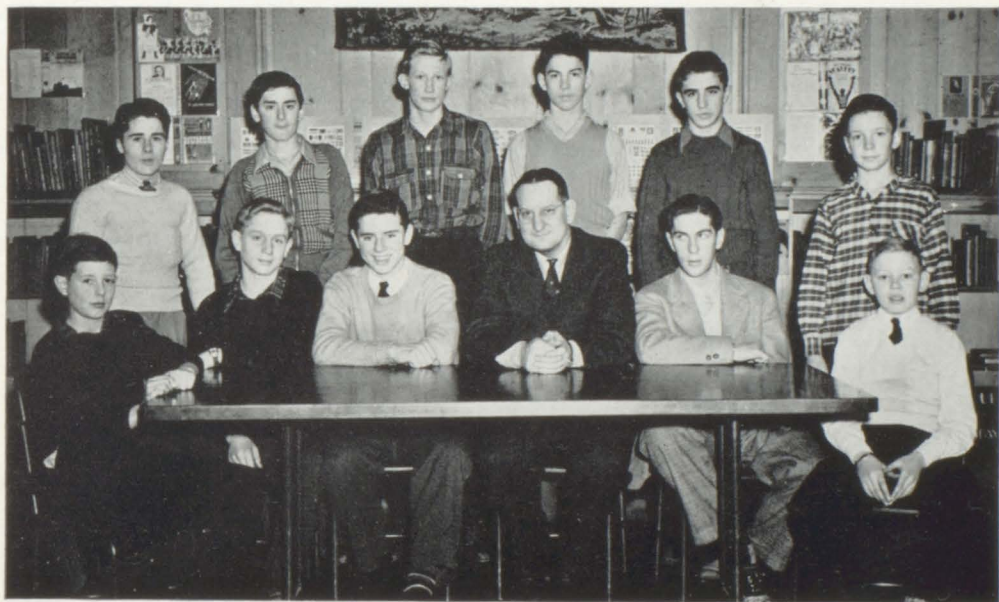

THE Boys' Athletic Association was newly formed this year. All the boys in the high school are automatically members, but its business is carried out by this council. The purpose of the association is to carry out a good, well-conducted system of interclass sports for the boys. This year they established their constitution and carried out interclass basketball, baseball, and track quite well.

Mr. Gurney is faculty advisor for the association, which should continue to accomplish good things in the future.

MARCH

"The Goose Hangs High"

THE senior play, a true-to-life story of a middle-class family, takes place in the Ingals household. The three children, home for Christmas, treat their parents with careless abandon and dash off to various parties. Their attitude changes however when they find that their father, who has been sacrificing for them constantly, has lost his very trying job at the city hall. They settle down and, serious for once, succeed in patching things up so that Mr. Ingals is able to secure a new position wherein he can follow his life-long ambition.

"The Count and the Coed"

THIS light operetta centers about the activities of Marden College. During the annual May Festival and the drive for the endowment fund, Snooze Andrews gets in a scrape and, to escape the police, dresses as a distinguished foreign count who is to visit the college. The president of Marden hopes that the count will contribute to the endowment and entertains him royally. Snooze finally declares his identity and is forgiven when the real count sends a check by mail.

Football Lettermen

NORMAN DELLNER—captain and two-letter man—outstanding lineman, playing guard and tackle—earned a tackle position on the All-League team.

CHESTER HAHN—versatile man on the line, playing end, center, and guard—possessed plenty of fight and aggressiveness—won his second “CF”.

HARRY BROOKS—played both end and tackle—played on All-League team—second year on varsity—scored a touchdown against Madison—injured shoulder kept him out of Orange game.

CLINTON TAYLOR—played every line position except end—senior two-letter winner—used his weight to great advantage on the line.

RALPH BEATTIE—senior end—constant threat as pass receiver—made several substantial gains on passes in Chardon game.

GLEN SCOTT—first year at Chagrin and first time out for football—played a hard, consistent game on the line.

GEORGE ENSLEN—senior halfback—squad's best blocker—shifty runner and good pass receiver.

HAROLD STONEMAN—led Fallsmen in scoring with eighteen points—triple-threat quarterback and star on offense—senior two-letter man.

DAVID DRAZ—first-string junior tackle and guard—missed last three games because of illness—will be mainstay of next year's forward wall.

WAYNE WILSON—junior tackle—heaviest boy on squad—leg injury received in Mayfield game kept him on the sidelines for the remainder of the season.

JACK BATCHELOR—fleet-footed senior tailback—could play in only three games due to a broken jaw.

DICK GREED—shifted from guard to end—one of Coach's most able flankmen—earned second monogram in two years—broke his nose in Orange game.

GEORGE DANCIU—first "CF" for this junior wingback—hard runner and good plunger—should be one of next year's backfield stars.

HUGH VAN BEATTIE—sophomore guard—first year on varsity—a little more experience should make him a top-notch lineman.

CHARLES BENBOW—line-smashing junior fullback—led Skips in total yards gained—third year on varsity—placed on All-League team for second straight year.

DON BRITTON—junior halfback—came to Chagrin from Orange—took over signal-calling duties late in season—good open-field runner—ran for two touchdowns.

LYNN SPRAGUE—junior quarterback—saw a good deal of action late in season—will be one of next year's regulars.

OAKLEY SHELTON—Diminutive freshman quarterback—accurate passer and fast, shifty runner—well on the road to becoming one of the few four-letter men.

DON LUMME—played both end and halfback—this speedy sophomore will be another bright star of Chagrin's future football seasons.

JOEL SMITH — scrappy junior end and guard — first year on varsity—played his best game against Hudson, snagging several passes for long gains.

JOHN BABCOCK—junior lineman—got his break late in the season starting Perry game—will be a consistent starter next year.

ALVIN SMITH — stocky sophomore lineman — won his first "CF" this year—suffered a very serious back injury in Perry game.

JERRY FINCH — good defensive sophomore end — his height should be an asset to next year's squad.

BOB SELLECK—reserve junior end—played a good defensive game—has another year of football at C.F.H.S.

JIM WOODWARD—fourth year as manager of football squad —team is indebted to him and his staff for their excellent work and cooperation.

COACH GURNEY—resumed coaching football this season after a year's absence from the gridiron—seventeenth year at Chagrin.

Football Squad

CHAGRIN'S 1942 football season was not exactly successful from the standpoint of games won; but it produced several outstanding players, three of which were placed on the Western Reserve All-League eleven. With at least twelve lettermen returning, next year's squad should be an experienced one.

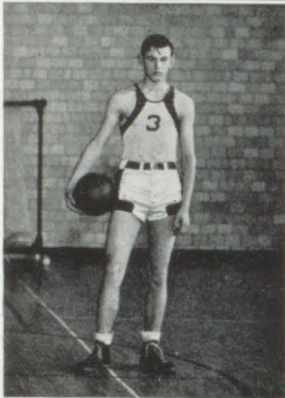

Basketball

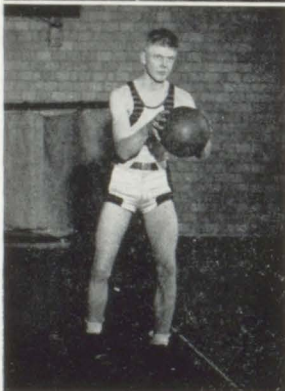

HARRY BROOKS — senior sharp shooting forward and center—meshed one hundred twenty-two points in twelve games for a ten-point average—second year on varsity—co-captain of team.

CHESTER HAHN — senior guard and center—squad's long-shot artist—starred in second Mayfield game, dropping in five mid-court shots — co-captain and two-letter winner.

GEORGE ENSLEN—senior forward — good playmaker and ball-handler — was third in individual scoring with fifty-two points.

NORMAN DELLNER—reserve senior guard—up from last season's "B" team—played an excellent defensive game.

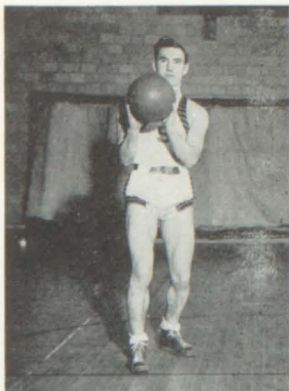

Lettermen

CHARLES BENBOW — junior forward—runner-up in scoring with sixty-one counters—could always be relied upon to play a fast, clean game.

BOB CLEMENS—first year on varsity for this junior guard — starred on offense and defense—will be back next year to plague the opposition.

ARTHUR MARRIOTT—hard-working sophomore manager — did his job thoroughly without any other help.

COACH GURNEY—can always be expected to turn out a good quintet — teams under him have won thirty-six out of fifty-one games in the past three years.

BACK ROW: Coach Gurney, Dellner, Stoneman, Lumme, Crowel, Fast, Marriott.
FIRST ROW: Robert Clemens, Brooks, Enslen, Benbow, Hahn.

Varsity

THE Chagrin basketball team enjoyed a fairly successful season, winning seven games in twelve starts and advancing to the county tournament finals. Coach Gurney built this year's quintet around two returning lettermen and several boys from last year's "B" team.

Basketball Games

MAYFIELD 50—CHAGRIN 12

The Skippies inaugurated their 1942-43 cage season at Mayfield by losing a one-sided contest to the Wildcats.

CHAGRIN 22—ALUMNI 19

A second-half rally by the varsity gave them a hard-earned victory over the Alumni during Christmas vacation.

CHAGRIN 46—BAINBRIDGE 25

The locals ran up their highest score of the year, as they swamped Bainbridge on the loser's floor. Harry Brooks topped the scoring column with seventeen points.

CHAGRIN 27—SOLON 24

Chagrin repulsed a last-quarter Solon rally to chalk up its third straight triumph. Charlie Benbow led Chagrin's attack with thirteen tallies.

ORANGE 32—CHAGRIN 22

A second-half uprising by the Orange basketeurs gave them a ten-point decision over the Fallsmen in a rough game at Orange.

CHAGRIN 36—RUSSELL 17

Chet Hahn and Harry Brooks sharing high-point honors with eleven points, Chagrin trounced Russell in a home game.

CHAGRIN 43—BAINBRIDGE 27

Harry Brooks' fifteen points led the Skips to their second victory over Bainbridge on the local floor.

ORANGE 34—CHAGRIN 33

A thirteen-point fourth-period spree by the Orangemen rewarded them with a one-point victory over the Skips at Chagrin. Harry Brooks paced the locals with fifteen markers.

CHAGRIN 35—RUSSELL 22

Harry Brooks and George Enslen rang up twenty-eight points between them to lead the Skippies to their second triumph over Russell on the loser's court.

SOLON 31—CHAGRIN 23

Minus three varsity men the Skips dropped their fourth game of the season on Solon's slippery floor.

CHAGRIN 26—ORANGE 23

Charlie Benbow's eleven points were very instrumental in tripping Orange and advancing Chagrin in the East Side Cuyahoga County tournament at Orange.

MAYFIELD 37—CHAGRIN 35

Chagrin came very close to upsetting Mayfield in the county tournament finals, but the Wildcats came from behind in the last period to mesh fourteen points and nose out the Skippies in the final minutes. Harry Brooks and Chet Hahn tallied eleven and ten points respectively for Chagrin.

"B" Team

WINNING seven and losing but three contests, the "B" team had one of its best seasons in the past few years. In ten games the Skips maintained a 29.6 point per game average to their opponents' 20.5. Top scorers for this squad were Dick Clemens with fifty-five points and Oakley Shelton with fifty-three.

Several boys from this team will be holding down regular positions on next year's varsity.

Baseball

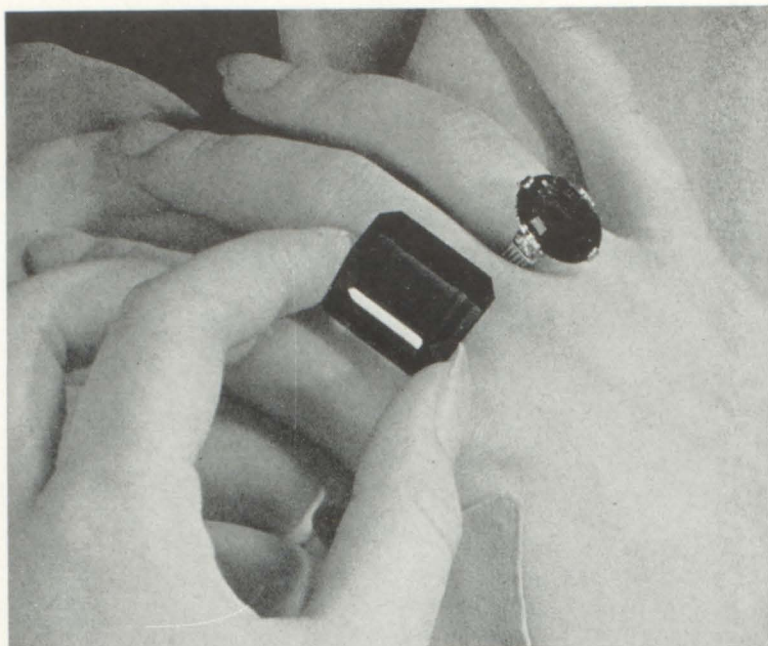

DUE to an unusually rainy spring season the 1942 baseball team, coached by Mr. Russell Casebolt, played only three games, an exhibition game with Wickliffe and two other league contests with Perry and Kirtland. Other games with Solon, Mentor, Chardon, and Wickliffe were rained out. Baseball letters were awarded to Bob Crotty, Ralph Beattie, Al Green, Harry Brooks, Herbert Kolm, Charles Peterson, and Floyd Rake.

Track

UNDER Coach Michael De Paolo, Chagrin's 1942 track squad enjoyed a fair season. For the third straight year the Skippies finished second in the league meet. Entering teams in only three events, Chagrin ran fifth in a field of nine schools in the Mentor Relays. The local cindermen won only one of the three dual meets and trailed Orange and Mayfield in the annual Tri-meet, but they finished the season in grand style by qualifying five boys for the state meet. Lettermen were Evan Hensley, Loren White, Frank Ettinger, Bob Crotty, Jim Stratton, Jack Batchelor, Ralph Beattie, Don Lumme, Charles Benbow, Charles Peterson, Russell Watters, and Jim Woodward.

Oh, Golly Neds,

It tastes almost as bad;

So if there is a
cabbage blight,

I surely won't be sad.

Oh, Cabbage, lowly
