"It matters not how strait the gate, How charged with punishment the scroll, I am the master of my fate: I am the captain of my soul."

⁶⁶THAT'S what they think," was the succinct comment of a former student, now in his second year at college, after he had read the newly chosen senior motto which had just been written on the blackboard. I laughed appreciatively as I thought of all the times that one is anything but "captain" of his soul, in one sense that is; yet in another sense a man can always be free within himself and as long as he has inner wholeness nothing can really disturb or daunt him. It is this inner living that is a man's refuge against the buffetings of his outer life. To remain at "one with oneself" as much as possible is what is important.

Each year I comment upon what seems to me to be an outstanding characteristic of the senior class. The desire to lead motivates this senior class at all times and through their ability to forge ahead they have produced some outstandingly good results. But I must caution you seniors to remember that even the greatest leader must at times be a follower. I like the idea contained in the lines:

> "When you are the anvil, bear— When you are the hammer, strike."

So many times I have talked to you about never losing touch with people and remaining earthy. In rereading Fra Lippo Lippi the other day I'd like to give you my motto taken from the poem as a guide to wonderful living.

"This world's no blot for us,

Nor blank; it means intensely and means good. To find its meaning is my meat and drink."

Elsa Jane Carroll

To ultimately show our respect and admiration and to acknowledge all the wonderful things he has accomplished, we, the Zenith Staff of 1949, do proudly dedicate our yearbook to "Coach" Ralph Quesinberry.

Prophecy

A DECADE has passed since the stellar class of '49 has passed through the portals of Chagrin Falls High School In the interim between graduation and this meeting, those ten years have effected many changes upon the members of this class. Many classes have emerged from this institution of learning but the forty-niners, inclined to be a bit radical, worked as a unified group to achieve any goal. The many character variations and the decided individualism combined with the "devil may care" attitude have distinguished this class as a shining example.

Located on the main thoroughfare of our thriving metropolis we find that world-known night spot—Club 49—owned and operated by RICHARD SAILER. Incidentally, there is no cover charge and therefore this establishment is well patronized by the former class of '49.

On their graduation night the class unanimously decided to gather in ten years to renew old acquaintances.

Coinciding with the reunion is the gala celebration in honor of the successful opening of "John Loathes Mary", by the noted playwright, JOHN EDWARD PATRICK BUCHANAN, and directed by that new-found genius, ANN TILTON. JOHN, better known as Jack, has spent the past four years in his placid Greenwich Village Apartment under Arthur Murray's dance studio.

Seated at an obscure table for two we find ANN KROENING, who has replaced Barney Oldfield as the new speedway champion. Seated nearby is DR. CUBBERLEY, chiropodist, who is the only one in the profession that puts his soul in his work.

Appearing through the archway of "Club 49" are BOB SCOTT, BILL KENNEY, and BOB METZKO, bedecked with raccoon coats, pork pie hats, and waving pennants high. The three have just returned from The Credit Bowl game where Scott's Chargers won a decisive victory over The Capitalists. BOB METZKO covered the game for the Chagrin Valley Herald and BILL KENNEY broadcast the game over a tri-network hookup.

PAT RALSTON, in one of her new small-scale automobiles, caused a minor disturbance when she parked her car in the lobby of the club. With her is FRANCES STEM, the new organist at the city's biggest church.

One of the newest concerns in Chagrin is the Sparrow Advertising Agency. BOB, with his No. 1 artist, PAT NELISSE, are at present discussing the details of a new sign they are going to erect.

BILL DAVIS, WESLEY MINOR, EVERETT LAKE, and WARREN CLARKE have joined forces in running the country's largest chain store, Fisher's. Through their generosity enough food was secured for the banquet.

Seated at a table for two are JEAN ALICE DAVIDSON, radical editor of the Chagrin Valley Herald, and her attorney, WALTER BABCOCK. They are discussing the day's court battle in which Walter was defending JEAN ALICE in a slander suit.

DIANNE and DONNA LEE CARLSON, the tumbling twins, have arrived in town with their tumbling troop, which has a week's billing at the theatre owned and operated by JANETTE HATCHER and BEVERLY RITCHEY. The four enter together discussing the terms of their contract.

PAT HLADIK, with her two able assistants, CLARICE CARLETON and JEAN SQUIRE, runs an exclusive gift shop, specializing in shell curios.

JUDY MELBOURNE, the roving photographer, followed by her silent partner, ROGER SCOTT, who is carrying her camera equipment, is going from table to table snapping pictures of the gathered celebrities.

Direct from Hollywood is JOY STRATTON, who has replaced Hedda Hopper as the leading gossip columnist. Joy is finding plenty of material for her column tonight at "Club 49." She stops and stares at JANET SYMES and EMERSON BEST, who have been carrying on a secret romance. EMERSON is making a name for himself in the music world with his golden trumpet. Nowadays when one thinks of a trumpeter, one immediately thinks of BEST. JANET is always at his side and can be credited with part of his success.

There is a momentary silence as everyone looks toward the door as WILLIAM FRANK DARLIN, U.S.N., enters followed by girls from every port. Close behind is BOB WALLER, current news photographer, who is taking pictures for all the newsreels.

At this afternoon's game JEAN FISCHER again showed herself as the virtuoso of the spinning baton.

ALICE CAMPBELL drives up in her battered station-wagon. She has spent her last dime and station-wagon on the underprivileged children near Princeton.

Old age caught up with Lou Boudreau so JANE JACKSON has become the first female baseball manager. As a result, the Indians' wigwam is embellished with curtains, and other female touches.

BOB PLAZAK enters wearing one of those new-style fur coats which he created by crossing a sparrow and a mouse. He calls it a spouse.

This evening's entertainment will be furnished by that well-known trio, the Three Flats, composed of JOHN MILLER, CHARLOTTE WHITLAM, and ALICE LEWIS.

BETSY SCHROEDER broke away from her myriads of small children, kindergarten age, long enough to come to the party. BETSY has become famous and endeared herself to many thousands of mothers with her new invention, the diaper-wiper.

WADE TAYLOR enters carrying his portable television set so that he won't miss any of the programs from his own station.

JAY PICKING, chief engineer for the station, spends much time working to perfect aerial television (in telecolor).

HARRY SMITH, the world's bowling champion, carries his bowling ball with him at all times for fear of sabotage.

SALLY ROHRMAN is looking forward with apprehension to her first Carnegie Hall concert which is to be given a week from today. At present she is discussing her new gown, designed and sold exclusively by CAROL KASERMAN.

RAY ARNOLD and BILL ALDERFER, as partners, who have acquired the title once held by "Mad Man Muntz", are the most radical car dealers in America and have consented to leave their place of business to come to tonight's party.

This year's "Miss America" contest picked one of our girls for the beauty queen, HELEN KENNEDY.

The Browns have hired JANICE EDWARDS to lead cheers with their midget, Tommy Flyn, for the coming season. She is now in the lobby practicing her favorite cheer . . . "Fight Team Fight" on GEORGE BOND, who is now the head man in the country-wide DeMolay Order.

The crowd hushes, the lights dim, and the spots go to the stage and the evening's entertainment begins. We leave the former class of '49' now so that they may go on reminiscing.

Pool fool. 2. Two lasses. 3. Mo—lasses. 4. Wet set. 5. Oh, you kid!
Major subjects. 7. What a mess! 8. Just horsing around. 9. Seeing double.

Our Town

LTHOUGH mother nature disappointed her worldly inhabitants on April 30, 1948, with some slightly disagreeable weather, the junior class delighted and almost overwhelmed the huge throng that made their way to the high school auditorium to witness Thornton Wilder's Our Town.

The production of the play in itself was an extremely difficult undertaking, due to the fact that there was no scenery and many meticulous sound effects were required. The play epitomized small-town life around the turn of the century. It contained moving drama of everyday life, touching upon both humorous and sad features.

Bob Metzko played the difficult, yet exacting role of the stage manager with all the ease of a veteran board-trodder. The other leading roles were very efficiently handled by Jean Alice Davidson, Bill Kenney, Dick Sailer, Pat Nelisse, Judith Melbourne, Wade Taylor, Bob Sparrow, Bob Waller, Betsy Schroeder, and Roger Scott. The supporting cast included Pete Cubberley, Emerson Best, Warren Clarke, Bill Darlin, Walter Babcock, Jay Picking, Frances Stem, Pat Ralston, Joy Stratton, John Miller, Ray Arnold and George Bond.

The before-mentioned sound effects which required perfect timing were impressively handled by Jack Buchanan and Everett Lake. The success, of course, could be traced back to the excellent direction of Miss Carrol and her two able assistants, Ann Tilton and Janette Hatcher.

What A Life

AFTER a highly successful endeavor with serious drama, the class of '49 turned to a light, sparkling, good-natured farce for its senior production. What A Life, with its hilariously involved plot, barbed satire, and pointed wit, played to a pleased crowd which filled the auditorium to capacity. The play centered around one awkwardly adolescent youth with the familiar appellation of Henry Aldrich. Henry, no matter how hard he tried, could not keep out of trouble; in fact he seemed to be an almost permanent occupant of the office of Mr. Bradley, the school principal. Despite the endeavors of Mr. Nelson (the assistant principal), Barbara Pearson (Henry's girl) and Mrs. Aldrich, Henry got into hotter and hotter water until he faced a reform school term for his supposed theft of the high school band instruments. However, the able sleuthing of Detective Ferguson, hindered at every turn by Miss Wheeler, a well meaning if slightly frustrated faculty member, finally uncovered the real culprit, who turned out none other than George Bigelow, the high school sheik. Henry, freed of all suspicion, found the key to understanding his puzzling elders, besides winning for his own the girl of his dreams.

Bob Scott

This speedy fullback was the co-captain and sparkplug of the team. Although he was small in size, Scotty could always be found in the midst of all the hard contact. His fight and spirit was recognized by all who saw him play.

Bob Plazak

Co-captain Bob was named on the All-County team this year. He won his fourth letter also. Coach says Plaz is the greatest tackle he ever coached. Opponents will breathe easier next year.

Wade Taylor

Wade was another nominee for All-County this year. Big and rough, his cross body blocks opened gaping holes for the Tiger backs. Coach will miss him at tackle next year.

Bill Kenney

Bill was the tallest end on the team. Although hampered by a back injury, he turned in several fine performances. He excelled in pass receiving. Bill won his first letter this year.

Bob Metzko

As a passer and a signal caller Bob did a fine job for the Tigers this year. Converted from a center, lack of experience handicapped him at times; however, he proved very valuable to the team on many occasions.

Jay Picking

Jay was recognized as the best pass receiver on the squad. Tall and fast, his sure hands will be missed next year. This was his first letter.

Jack Buchanan

Jack will be remembered for his fight and spirit. He never stopped going till the final gun. Coach will find it will be a real job to replace this shifty halfback next year.

Dick Sailer

Although Dick was one of the biggest linemen he was also one of the fastest. He won his first letter this year. Coach will have a hard time finding a tackle like him.

John Miller

John won his first letter at a defensive end this year. He will be well remembered by Orange because of his brilliant play against them. This was John's last year.

Ray Arnold

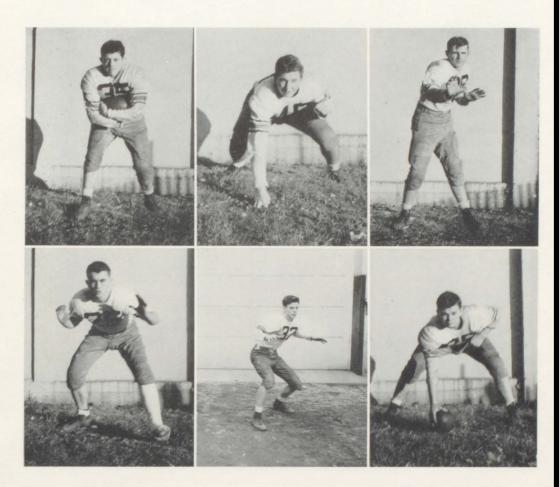

Although Ray broke his leg in pre-season practice, he was voted his second letter. The "Big Wild Man" was really missed this year.

Emerson Best

This lanky senior was used mostly on defense and he proved his worth in several games. He played both end and backfield.

Dick Crowe

Dick earned his second letter at center this year. Rough and ready, he was one of our very capable linebackers.

Cliff McMillen

When Cliff left at mid-season to go to Russell, the Tigers lost one of their chief mainstays at end. Cliff always gave his best.

Russ Peterson

Russ, an offensive guard, was nominated for All-County by Coach because of his great blocking. He won his first letter this year.

Kenney Wiley

Chagrin fans will see a lot of this fellow the next two years. Big and rough, he was a mainstay in the line.

Don Evans

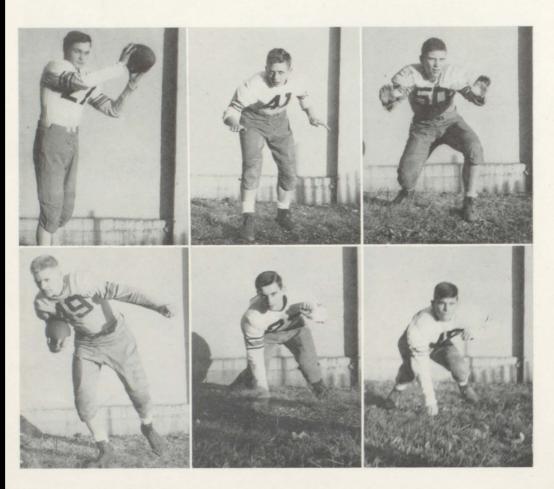

Don was the leading scorer of the Tigers this year and Coach looks to him for even bigger things next year.

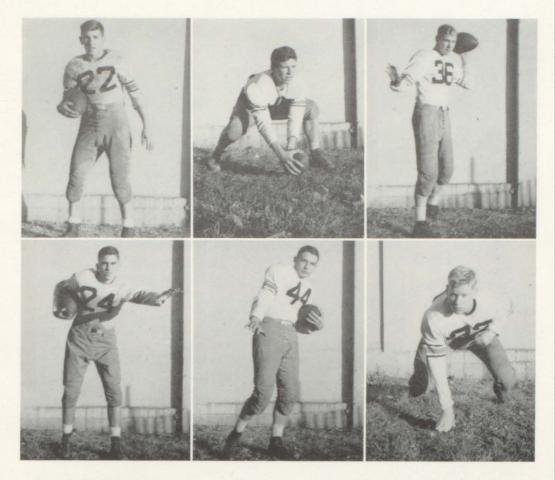

Bob Arnold

Following in the footsteps of his big brother, the "Little Wild Man" could be counted on to play every game to the best of his ability.

Tom Hubbard

Tom is keeping up the Hubbard tradition at Chagrin. Fast and husky, Tom played a guard this season.

Darrell Shelton

This 128-pound linebacker was the bulwark of the Chagrin defense. What Darts lacked in weight he made up twice over in fight and spirit. He's a junior.

Dick Draz

Another Draz at center! Dick could always be counted on to give his best every game. Watch him next year.

Bob Winship

Fast and extremely shifty, Bob should prove to be the best broken field runner in the conference next year.

Jim Stoneman

Coach claimed that Jim was the most improved player on the squad, and he readily proved this when he intercepted a pass in the Chardon game and dashed 60 yards for a touchdown.

Al Cramer

Al is one of the fastest backs on the squad and he should really travel from his fullback spot in "49".

Stuart Root

Because of poor eyesight Stuart cannot be used at end next year, but no matter what position he plays he will prove to be rough and ready.

Rolf Tinge

Rolf was the heaviest man on the squad and was a hard man to move. Coach used him only on defense this year.

Bill Darlin

Bill worked for two years to get the job of "head man". He was the one who took the blame if there wasn't any hot water after practice.

Pete Cubberley

Pete, the assistant manager, really did most of the work up at the stadium. He had the job of keeping the records of the points for the trophies that were presented at the banquet.

Head Coach Ralph Quesinberry

Although Coach didn't turn out another championship team, his squad mirrored his fight and spirit. He will have a more experienced team next year with fourteen returning lettermen.

Assistant Coach Dan Lopatt

Mr. Lopatt worked with the ends and backs this year. He also scouted the other teams that we played. He was very popular with the boys on the squad.

Assistant Coach William Freeland

We will never forget that cry — "Go, go, go" — that Coach shouted as we worked on the blocking sled. He always gave freely of his time and energy for the good of the team.

Jootball Scores

CHAGRIN—24......CHARDON—0 The Tigers proved more than a match for the Hilltoppers as they took the season opener. Evans, Scott, and Buchanan each scored once and Stoneman scored on an intercepted pass just before the gun.

Mayfield-19.....Chagrin-7

It was due to bad breaks that the Tigers suffered their second league setback. Mayfield scored two quick touchdowns in the first quarter on a blocked punt and on a fumble recovered in mid-air. The rest of the game was even, highlighted only by Buchanan's 50-yard run to the ten from where Scott plunged over for the only Tiger score. Shelton scored the extra point.

For the first time in three years the Tigers failed to score in a league game. The game was played in rain and mud. The Lions scored in the second and third quarters. The Tigers had two drives stopped within the Orange twenty-yard line.

Chagrin-7.....Solon-0

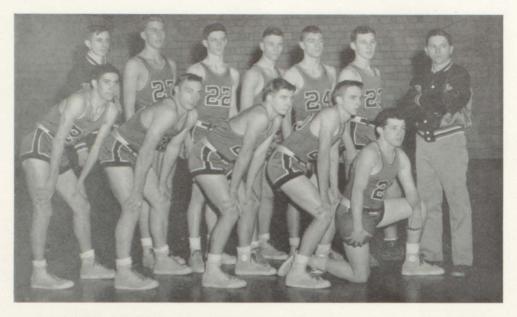

The '48 edition of the Tigers kept up the Chagrin tradition of never losing to Solon on the gridiron in a rough, tough contest. Chagrin lost a chance to score in the first quarter by a fumble. The teams fought on an even basis until Chagrin drove to pay dirt in the final quarter with Jack Buchanan scoring. Al Cramer added the extra point.

CHAGRIN—14......INDEPENDENCE—0 A highly favored Chagrin team failed to live up to its promise and squeezed by the hapless Blue Devils by only two touchdowns. The Tigers never really got started. The first score came in the second quarter on a short pass from Bob Metzko to Jay Picking.

On the first play in the second half Evans blazed 71 yards for the only other score. Cramer added both extra points.

The Tigers were completely outclassed by the big Eastern Conference Champions. Dom Aveni, the second leading scorer in the district, broke away for four touchdowns. The big Arc line held the Tigers at bay until the fourth quarter, when Evans broke through tackle and sped forty yards for the lone Chagrin score. Cramer converted.

Varsity

BASKETBALL SUMMARIES

CHAGRIN—58......INDEPENDENCE—43 Led by Kenney's 19 points the Tigers rolled to their first league victory. They completely outclassed the visitors in their first home game.

CHAGRIN—43.....CUYAHOGA HEIGHTS—41 In the second overtime game of the season the Tigers emerged with the victory. Scott's two baskets in the overtime proved to be the margin. He netted 13 points for the evening. After holding a one-point lead at the close of the third quarter, the Tigers faded in the closing minutes and dropped their second league game. Plazak had 8 points.

A second half rally dropped short as the Tigers were edged by the Comets. The rally was sparked by Kenney and Metzko who scored 11 and 9 points, respectively.

Chagrin-47.....Bainbridge-26

Scott and Picking whipped in 17 points between them as the Tigers came from behind to down our surprisingly strong rivals from the east. CHAGRIN-44.....INDEPENDENCE-40

An over-confident Tiger squad was forced to go all out to down the determined Blue Devils. Kenney and Metzko led the Tigers with 17 and 10 points, respectively.

CHAGRIN—41......BAINBRIDGE—31 The Tigers found the going rough in the first half, but turned on the heat in the last 16 minutes to coast to their fourth straight victory. Kenney scored 14 points.

CHAGRIN-40.....CUYAHOGA HEIGHTS-22 The Tigers played their best defensive game of the season as they completely outclassed the Redskins. Scott, Picking, and Plazak poured in 25 points between them.

The Tigers were upset in the first game of the county tournament by the Saints from East Cleveland. The Chagrinites again failed to hold a halftime lead. Kenney led the Tigers with 13 points.

Bob Metzko - Guard

Bob's lack in height proved no handicap when it came to out-jumping taller boys under the backboard. Bob would always be counted on for his long shots to draw the defense out.

Bob Plazak - Forward

His phenomenal hook-shot made Bob a big threat in all our games. He was also rated one of the best defensive men on the squad. Bob won his second letter.

Jay Picking - Forward

Coach Lopatt said this boy came farther along than any other person on the squad. Jay's height helped him on rebounds and he captured scoring honors in several games.

Emerson Best - Forward

Emerson was forced out in mid-season by a bad knee but Coach felt he earned his letter by his hard playing previous to the injury.

Jack Buchanan - Forward

Jack was not a regular but he saw more than enough service to win his letter. His fighting spirit never let down as he played his hardest every minute.

Bill Kenney — Center

Being the leading scorer on the team and one of the highest in the county, Bill was the ace of the Tigers. Bill's 10 to 15 points a game was one of the big reasons for the successful season.

Bob Scott – Guard

Bob's aggressiveness and spirit was a leading factor for many of the Tigers' victories this year. Coach Lopatt was correct in surmising that Scotty was the best ball handler in the league.

Wade Taylor - Guard

Although lacking experience, Wade came fast at the end of the season and helped the team considerably. Wade's 6'4" frame proved tough to cope with on rebounds.

Ken Wiley - Forward

Ken promises to become one of the best basketball players to be seen in Chagrin in a long time. The only underclassman on the squad, he has two years of action left.

Fred Wilson - Forward

Fred had the very difficult job of playing on both the A and B teams. This lanky junior will be an asset to next year's varsity.

Jack Ryan — Manager

This was Jack's first contact with organized sports and he came through with flying colors. There wasn't anything Jack wouldn't do for the team and we appreciated it greatly.

Coach Lopatt

This was Mr. Lopatt's first year as head coach but he kept the Tigers' spirit alive in every game. The team showed their appreciation for such a gifted mentor by battling for the championship right down to the wire. Chagrin fans can look forward to more bright seasons with Senor Lopatt at the helm.

THE Tiger Cubs under the guiding hand of Coach Lopatt started the season in a rough fashion by losing seven of their first nine games. They finished the season with a record of eight victories and nine defeats. Nine of the reserves will move up to the varsity next year.

Track

IN the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of his pipe, but then track intervenes. As usual, the Tiger squad gave a good account of themselves. Coach Freeland opened the season with nine returning lettermen.
