THE
1953
ZENITH

Acknowledgment

We, the Zenith Staff of 1953, wish to extend our sincerest thanks to Mr. Norman Fry, our advisor; Ellen and Bill Hood and Frosty Norton, photographers; Mr. Geo. Vance of the Tower Press; Mrs. Helen Daugherty of the Northern Engraving and Electrotpe Company; the merchants and businessmen of our valley; our parents and teachers; and everyone else who has helped to make the 1953 Zenith possible.

Foreword

BE NOT deceived; God is not mocked: For whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

Now, when the slate of your life is comparatively clean, is the time to consider just what you want to have written upon it. As living is a creative experience, so should your individual lives be; therefore build slowly, carefully, and surely. If you pattern your lives around high ideals, you will not be tortured by vain regrets when it is too late to change.

I firmly believe that if you try to be decent and good you will attain an inner strength that will enable you to weather any vicissitude. You still have ample opportunity to fashion your lives so that, as the years pile up, you will have honor, respect, friends, and love.

You should live not only for today alone but also for the tomorrows that are to come. Sow, that you will reap a rich harvest of contentment and happiness.

It has given me a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction to know and work with the class of 1953. The faculty and I extend to you our warmest hopes for your future well-being.

Miss Elsa Jane Carroll,
Senior Class Advisor

Dedication

WE, the class of 1953, in an attempt to show our recognition of a person whose efforts for the students often go unappreciated, take great pleasure in dedicating our yearbook to Mr. Norman D. Fry.

PATRICIANS

Jerry Meredith Hawn, President

Burkhardt's junior partner . . . willing helper and hard worker . . . that air of conservatism often gives way to the fun-loving, fun-making fellow who really lives here.

Honor lies in honest toil.

President 1, 4; Varsity Club 3, 4; Zenith Staff, Assistant Business Editor; Basketball Manager 1; Football 1, Manager 2, 3, 4; Key Club Board of Directors 2, 3, President 4; Student Activities Council 1; Honor Society 4, Secretary-Treasurer 3; Senior Play.

John David Ebel, Vice-President

Gave voice to the "Warehouse Blues" . . . one of the "Bell Street Blue Boys" . . . here is a fellow who talks freely, openly, and warmly.

Persuasion tips his tongue where'er he talks.

Class Vice-President 4; Choral Club 1, 2, 3, President 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Play; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Key Club 2, 3, 4; Operetta 1, 3.

Sarah Christine Carlson, Secretary

Sophistication plus genuine likability . . . our '52 Football Queen . . . an ardent record fan . . . her smile mischievous, her friendship valuable . . . last of those Carlson "femme fatales".

I'm willing to be convinced, but who can convince me?

Class Secretary 4; Glee Club 1; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Zenith Assistant Editor; Senior Play; Operetta 1; Y-Teens 2, 3, 4; Honor Society 3, 4.

Harold Aller Cubberley, Treasurer

George's little helper . . . always comes through in a pinch . . . combination of monkey business and good business . . . mechanical genius . . . auto fan.

A little nonsense now and then, is relished by the best of men.

Class Treasurer 4; Choral Club 2, 3; Varsity Club 3, 4; Football 1, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Track 3; Operetta 3; Echo 3.

James Edward Moyse

Jim, the Reverend . . . sincere, practical, hardworking . . . student council president . . . surprise editor of the yearbook, "What did I do to deserve this?" . . . No matter where he goes or what he becomes he will be a credit to the class of '53.

*The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill.*

Class Secretary 1, 3; Zenith Editor; Football 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1; Track 1, 2, 3; Key Club 2, Secretary 3, 4; Student Activities Council 3, Secretary 2, President 4; Junior Red Cross 2, 3, 4; School Lighting Technician.

Shirley Alyce Curtiss

Unparalleled as a thespian . . . scholarship and leadership combined with personal effort put Shirley at the top of her class . . . active in all extracurricular organizations . . . this graduate is destined for success.

She is small, but so is a stick of dynamite.

Choral Club 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. 2, 4, Cabinet 1, Treasurer 3; Zenith Business Manager; Junior Play; Senior Play; Operetta 1, 3; Y-Teens 2, 3, Vice-President 4; Honor Society 4, Vice-President 3; Echo 1, 2, Managing Editor 3; Cheerleader 2, 3, 4.

Roger Mills Armstrong

A go-between for Solon and Chagrin . . . mathematically minded . . . science fiction enthusiast . . . admires the Fisher body . . . no grass grows under his feet.

He has an eye that could speak, tho' he were silent.

Football 3, 4; Varsity Club 4; School Lighting Technician 2, 3, 4.

Roberta Louise Barriball

"Bobbie" . . . bundle of liveliness combined with common sense . . . silly questions are her specialty . . . always has her finger in every pie . . . with a willing hand and friendly smile she'll help anyone.

A light heart lives long.

Choral Club 4; G.A.A. 1, 4, Cabinet 2, 3; Zenith Head Typist; Y-Teens 2, 3, 4; Echo 1, 2; Senior Play.

Gaynor Carol Bradley

"Devil and the Deep Blue Sea" . . . lovely brunette
 . . . cheery disposition . . . appealing to the opposite sex
 . . . life of the party.

Joy bubbles in my veins.

Choral Club 1, 3, 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3; Junior Play;
 Operetta 1, 3; Y-Teens 2, 3, 4.

Judith Ann Burke

Active member of G.A.A. . . . peppy cheerleader
 . . . calm when excitement confuses others . . . encouraging words of confidence, a reliable answer, or a tricky limerick, that's Judy.

Drawing on my fine command of language, I said nothing.

Class Vice-President 1; Choral Club 1, 2, 3, 4;
 G.A.A. 1, 2, Vice-President 3, President 4; Zenith Calendar Editor; Junior Play; Operetta 1, 3; Y-Teens 2, 3, 4; Echo 2, 3; Cheerleader 2, 3, 4.

Shirley Ann Clark

A keen sense of humor . . . whiz at the wheel . . .
 handy with a needle and thread . . . top commercial student.

*What e'er she did was done with so much ease,
 In her alone 'twas natural to please.*

G.A.A. 1, 2; Zenith Typist; Y-Teens 2, 3; Honor Society 3, 4.

Elbert Leroy Cowhard, Jr.

Lady's man in a flashy car . . . famed for his knowledge of girls, the naughty ones . . . hides a thoughtful seriousness under a carefree smile.

Give me chastity and self-restraint, but do not give it yet.

Transferred from South High 2; Class Vice-President 3; Varsity Club 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Basketball 3;
 Key Club 3; Band 2, 3.

C. Bruce Crittenden, Jr.

Give me the forest primeval . . . dark horse candidate for leading lover . . . thoughtful . . . truthful . . . friendly smile for everyone.

A bear in athletics, but a cub with the girls.

Class Treasurer 3; Choral Club 4; Varsity Club 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Key Club 3, 4; Senior Play.

William Parish Crombie

Second-story man . . . indispensable at Cochran's . . . budding astronomer . . . soft-spoken . . . shy, reserved.

Worry kills men; why die?

Basketball Manager 3, 4; Varsity Club 4; Echo 3.

Barbara Lee Crowe

Sweet, charming, innocent? . . . her winning ways have captured many an underclassman's heart . . . our capable Y-Teen president . . . makes friends easily and readily.

To be a friend is to have friends.

Y-Teens 2, 3, President 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleader 2, 3, 4; Senior Play; Honor Society 3, 4; Choral Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1; Echo 1, 2; Operetta 3; Uke Club 2.

Judith Carolyn Ebel

Another "page" at the library . . . quick-change artist with the diapers . . . popular Red Cross president for two years . . . her determination and sincerity will take her far.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness.

Class Vice-President 2; Choral Club 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Play; Operetta 1, 3; Student Activities Council 4; Y-Teens 2, 3, 4; Junior Red Cross 2, President 3, 4.

David Joseph Farris

My, what a handsome lad he is! . . . his quiet manner is deceiving . . . his agility adds to his prowess on the hardwood . . . sincere in his purpose.

Little we know what he thinks or dreams.

Varsity Club 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1; Senior Play.

Carol Joan Fram

Platinum blonde . . . feminine charm and daintiness . . . industrious worker . . . sympathetic . . . adds a bright touch to every gathering.

Quiet in appearance with motives little known.

Choral Club 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Operetta 1, 3; Y-Teens 2, 3; Cabinet 4; Senior Play.

Roger Carter Hartman

Rog, senior-year lover . . . baseball pitcher extraordinaire . . . ask him how he got his name, "Chisel" . . . saved his "Nichols" for rainy days.

Work is a form of nervousness.

Choral Club 3, 4; Varsity Club 4; Football 1, 2, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 4; Operetta 3.

Carol Mae Hawersaat

Takes top honors in all sports . . . hides behind a blanket of freckles . . . famous for her pajama parties . . . her naivety is very refreshing.

By her questions you shall know her.

G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Y-Teens 2, 3, 4; Senior Play.

Winifred Laverne Hemming

Winnie . . . her quiet, placid manner is contrasted by her witty sense of humor . . . a hit as Madame Elise in the Junior Play.

Of manners gentle, of affections mild.

G.A.A. 1, 2; Y-Teens 2, 3; Junior Play; Zenith Typist.

Shirley Frances Hills

Effervescent . . . quick with words . . . whiz at book-keeping . . . avid baseball fan . . . one just can't resist Shirley as a friend.

*Under a surface, calm, serene,
Joy and laughter may be seen.*

G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, Cabinet 4; Zenith Typist.

Karl Egmond Hoekstra

Huck . . . headed for the "wildlife" . . . his stamina and ability will be the secret of his success . . . reserved smile . . . combines sports with leadership.

Character is the diamond that scratches every other stone.

Class President 3; Choral Club 4; Varsity Club 3, President 4; Zenith Assistant Sports Editor; Junior Play Assistant Director; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, Manager 1; Track 1, 2, 3; Key Club 2, 3, Vice-President 4; Honor Society 4.

A proper squire.

Choral Club 4; Varsity Club 3, 4; Basketball 1, 4, Manager 3; Track 3.

We, the chivalrous, proud and arrogant class of nineteen hundred and fifty-three, being sound in body and mind, do declare to those whom it concerns that this, the following, is our last will and testament.

Article I. To those dashing juniors we leave our ability to come through against perplexing odds.

Article II. To those impetuous sophomores we leave all the dark corners we have found, knowing that they will use them to the best advantage.

Article III. To those paranoic freshmen we leave our temperance and moderation in hopes that they may become more like us as the years go on.

Article IV. To the faculty—we leave, we go—goodbye.

Article V. The Will:

I, Jerry Meredith Dennis John Hawn, do will and bequeath my grandfather's car to anyone with a good strong set of bike pedals.

I, Dave Ebel, do will and bequeath my trumpet-like nose to the band.

I, Sarah Carlson, do will and bequeath my ability to raise the morale and lower the morals to my little brother so that he can carry on the Carlson tradition.

I, Hal Cubberley, do will and bequeath my knowledge of the routes to Florida to Pete Shelton.

I, Jim Moyse, do will and bequeath all of my spare time to Mr. Wheatcraft so he will have time to check all the papers I handed in late.

I, Shirley Curtiss, do will and bequeath my acting ability to Mamma Carroll's future thespians.

I, Roger Armstrong, do will and bequeath my "honey" to anyone who wants to get stung.

I, Bobbie Barriball, do will and bequeath the 48 keys to my heart to any typewriter company who wants a used ribbon.

I, Gaynor Bradley, do will and bequeath my jet black hair to Chariss Odenweller.

I, Judy Burke, do will and bequeath my checkered shorts to anyone who wants to do some checking.

I, Shirley Clark, do will and bequeath my ability to appear quiet in class to Carol Shelton (in hopes).

I, Al Cowhard, do will and bequeath my convertible to anyone who's at home without a top.

I, Bruce Crittenden, do will and bequeath my good looks to a duck during the mating season.

I, Bill Crombie, do will and bequeath my observatory to any aspiring second-story man.

I, Barbara Crowe, do will and bequeath my Choral Club pin to Mr. Johnston.

I, Judy Ebel, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Jim Moyse to his brother, Bill.

I, Dave Farris, do will and bequeath my position as basketball "ACE" to any card shark.

I, Carol Fram, do will and bequeath my quiet disposition to Jean Englehart.

I, Roger Hartman, do will and bequeath my "Chisel" to the shop department.

I, Carol Hawersaat, do will and bequeath my height and strength to Nancy Schroeder and Helene Rock in hopes that they may pass Senior Life-Saving.

I, Winifred Hemming, do will and bequeath my driving ability to anyone who can afford it.

I, Shirley Hills, do will and bequeath my typing ability to the teachers in hope that they will be able to do their own work in the future.

I, Karl Hoekstra, do will and bequeath my quiet ways with the women to Phillip Blair.

I, Larry Kachele, do will and bequeath my football uniform to anyone who wants to go swimming.

I, Carolyn Keck, do will and bequeath my witty sayings to anyone who can understand them.

I, Lois Kline, do will and bequeath my living room to my brother and sister, since they seem to like it.

I, Joan Lambert, do will and bequeath my collection of rings and bracelets to H. W. Beattie and Son.

I, Bill Lawyer, do will and bequeath my rod and reel to Mr. Wheatcraft who has already been hooked.

I, Gary Matthews, do will and bequeath my nickname "Pinky" to Pinkerton's Detective Agency.

I, Bill Matthews, do will and bequeath my gold-plated, diamond-studded church key to Jon Fitzpatrick.

I, Ken McCabe, do will and bequeath my paint brush to anyone who can "palate" it.

I, Ron McCormick, do will and bequeath my hillbilly records to anyone who appreciates the finer things in life.

I, Jack McFarland, do will and bequeath my nickname "Ghandi" to anyone in "high spirits".

I, Sue Nelisse, do will and bequeath my Guy Mitchell records to Bing Crosby.

I, Gordon Nichols, do will and bequeath the key to the mystery of the cigarettes with lipstick on the ends to Mr. Johnston.

I, George Plzak, do will and bequeath my innocent nature to the future senior class.

I, Dorothy Richards, do will and bequeath my modeling costume to anyone who wants to keep cool.

I, Eugene Sargent, do will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble to Larry Harmon.

I, Jack Sasak, do will and bequeath my duck feet to anyone who wants to learn how to swim.

I, Sue Scott, do will and bequeath my Raleigh coupons to Jerry Hunt.

I, Marilyn Simons, do will and bequeath my nickname "Mare" to any stable boy who wants to take care of it.

I, Dave Spanagel, do will and bequeath my railroad cars to anyone who is off the track.

I, J. P. Stroud, do will and bequeath my two-tone hairdo to any aspiring young skunk.

I, Leslie Sturges, do will and bequeath my cinch belt to anyone who wants to be squeezed.

I, Don Toth, do will and bequeath my job as George's little gas pump to anyone who wants a liberal education.

I, Lisa Weeks, do will and bequeath my swing shift to any factory who thinks they can make better use of it.

I, Bill Wendl, do will and bequeath my old muskrat carcasses to the Standard Drug hamburger department.

PLEBES

Juniors

Fear not, neither be discouraged.—Deuteronomy 1:21

President	MIKE CARLTON
Vice-President	DAVE COHN
Secretary	CLARK CRAMER
Treasurer	TRUDY TOSO

THESE capricious juniors add pep and vitality to any school activities, ranging from sports to the social functions. Their varied talents are appreciated very much by those who attended their dance, "Cupid's Capers", which has yet to be equaled, and their play, "Annie Get Your Gun". The qualities, leadership and cooperation, which prevail in the class of '54, will stand them in good stead during their senior year.

UPPER LEFT: McNally, Keal, Burton, Tilton, Englehart, Stephen.

Sophomores

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

AFTER two years in high school the sophomores are still the liveliest class in the building and show no sign of losing their animation. Whether it's making love, playing football or school work, the sophomores are way out ahead.

Each year the boys prove themselves more valuable on the athletic field. After winding up a very successful track season last year, the boys went on to fill many positions on the football team this year and helped round out the team. Everyone is looking for these boys to be league champions in '54.

Freshmen

Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.—Ecclesiastes 7:8

V ERSATILITY is surely the keynote of this class. This fact is brought to the front by almost any member of the class. Athletics, the social graces, studies—the freshmen have a candidate in each field. Their basketball team was near the top in the SOMAC league. Any member who should happen to have the misfortune of leaving this wonderful class is sure to be showered by at least a score of parties. Their attitude toward study is evident by their comparatively high grades in the classroom.

These outstanding qualities plus their friendliness and spirit of cooperation toward each other and as a class should serve to make the class of '56 one of which Chagrin may well be proud.

NOW in their third year of service to the school, the council is finally beginning to realize some of the goals for which they set their sights three years ago. One of the duties in which the council now has almost complete jurisdiction is that of choosing and handling all of the programs which come to our school. With a modest beginning, the Student Council has been gaining in prominence each year.

THE Junior Red Cross Council is the representative of the Cleveland Red Cross Chapter in our school. Students are elected to be on the council; however, anyone who wishes to participate in helping the Red Cross program may do so by signing a card which pledges his services to the organization. This year, the Cleveland Chapter called upon the Junior Red Cross to assist the Bloodmobile Unit which came to Chagrin Falls, and received complete cooperation.

THE capabilities of our new director were quickly recognized by his original approach to the half-time ceremonies and the introduction of a jazz band during basketball intermissions. This year the band made more money than ever before in their sale of magazines and added several new instruments. The annual band concert was a complete success this year and everyone is looking forward to next year's band programs.

FOR those students who like to express their opinions and ideas in words, we have the Echo, our school paper. Membership in the Echo staff is open to anyone interested in journalism. Just the fact that it is completely edited and published by students, makes it interesting to students. Through its large staff of reporters, the Echo manages to keep in contact with all the school's many and varied activities. Outside the personal satisfaction of working on the staff, a gold pin is awarded to those juniors who have made major contributions to the Echo over a period of two years, either in the sphere of writing, typing, or art work.

Calendar

● NOVEMBER

G.A.A. and Varsity Clubs give first dance of the year. . . . Choral Club gives public appearances at Women's Club and Booster Club. . . . Seniors come through triumphantly with Our Miss Brooks—(Miss McCreary did a fine job of taking over when Miss Carroll was suddenly called away). . . . Chagrin's basketball season gets off to a good start by winning a thriller from Cuyahoga Heights, 35-33. . . . We spend the rest of the month honoring "Mr. Turkey" and giving thanks.

● SEPTEMBER

With the arrival of the 4th, we find ourselves seniors. . . . Building under construction and lots of workmen around. . . . Mr. Casebolt is back with us—other new additions are—Miss Bode, Miss McCreary, Mr. Hagen and Mr. Johnston. . . . Tigers journey to the Round Robin and come back with a 0-0 tie with Brecksville. . . . Chagrin plays host to Char-don but is not very hospitable, winning 12-0. . . . Freshmen duly initiated by sophomores in G.A.A. . . . Newly installed Y-Teen Cabinet goes into action. . . . Chagrin trounces Independence, 14-6. . . . Band is doing very nicely under the direction of Mr. Johnston. . . . Three new majorettes added.

● OCTOBER

Tigers tie with Mayfield and Cuyahoga Heights but manage to edge out Olmsted Falls, 19-20. . . . Annual pep rally held at fair grounds to get in the spirit of things for Orange, but still we get beat, 6-10. . . . Sarah Carlson reigns over the game as football queen. . . . Dads have a night as the Tigers beat Solon, 14-7 the last game of the year. . . . Seniors put their all into a successful carnival.

● DECEMBER

Tigers beat their neighbors, the Bainbridge Bombers. . . . We journey to Independence and come home with the second straight league victory. . . . Y-Teens enjoy a square dance. . . . Choral Club sings for the P.-T.A. Christmas Program. . . . Tigers go to Western Reserve Academy for a basketball game and come home with another victory. . . . Brecksville comes to Chagrin and goes home with a defeat as we win in the last few seconds, 57-53. . . . The annual Choral Club concert is a great success. . . . Tigers fall at the hands of Mayfield. . . . At the beautiful and successful Y-Teen Formal, Carol Fram is crowned queen. . . . Christmas vacation starts and everyone relaxes except the basketball team which defeats the Alumni. . . . The New Year is welcomed by all in their own way.

● JANUARY

Christmas vacation is extended until the 12th due to the construction of the new part of the building. . . . Tigers beat Orange but lose to Cuyahoga Heights which ties them for second place. . . . The Inaugural Ball is the theme of the senior dance. . . . Tigers trounce Independence. . . . Bands from Solon, Orange, Mayfield and Chagrin get together for a clinic. . . . Students go through a rough week of finals. . . . Seniors finish out the month with the scholarship tests at Orange.

● FEBRUARY

New semester starts. . . . Tigers get revenge on Mayfield—also mark up another victory over Solon. . . . The Class of '54 put on a Valentine Dance, Cupid's Capers. . . . Last game of the season, Chagrin bows to Orange at home. . . . Seniors have their night. . . . Tigers go to B-W for basketball tournament. . . . Football players and cheerleaders get their letters in an athletic assembly. . . . Mr. Johnston presents an entertaining band concert.

● MARCH

Juniors show their ability in the play, Annie Get Your Gun. . . . Students settle down to some uninterrupted work.

● APRIL

Students from Solon, Orange, Mayfield and Chagrin get together for a vocal clinic. . . . Sophomores combine their talents and put on their first dance.

● MAY

P.-T.A. school exhibit and style show. . . . Seniors entertain the school with their final performance at the senior assembly. . . . Juniors give a fine banquet and prom. . . . Parties start the last round of excitement for the Class of '53.

● JUNE

Baccalaureate and Commencement round out the festivities for the seniors as they leave behind them dear old C.F.H.S.

SPORTS

Athletic Council

LEFT TO RIGHT: Coach Hagen, George Plzak, Coach Quesinberry, Jon Fitzpatrick, Mr. Gurney, Mr. Sands.

THE Athletic Council is composed of the high school superintendent, principal, coaches, and two boys elected from the student body. The purpose of this board is to handle all financial matters dealing with athletics and to approve all sports events and awards.

Football Team

CHAGRIN—0 ----- WESTLAKE—0

The Tigers journeyed to Cuyahoga Heights to meet Westlake in the annual Medical Fund Preview game. Chagrin played the favored Westlake team to a standstill.

CHAGRIN—7 ----- BRECKSVILLE—12

The Bees outweighed the Tigers man for man but Chagrin's spirit never died. Jim VanGorder set up the lone Chagrin tally with a sixty-yard sprint.

CHAGRIN—13 ----- CUYAHOGA HEIGHTS—13

The men from Heights gained an early lead to make the first half look black for Chagrin. The Tigers got a foothold in the second half and, led by Larry Kachele, came back to tie the game. It was the most memorable game of the season.

CHAGRIN—12 ----- CHARDON—0

Although the game with the Hilltoppers was a non-league contest, the Tigers gained confidence through victory. The game was close in the opening period but as it progressed, the Tigers' drive and spirit put them on top by a considerable margin.

CHAGRIN—0 ----- MAYFIELD—0

The Fallsmen played superior ball on both offense and defense in what might be called the "battle of the fullback". Larry Kachele, of Chagrin, and Bob McSween, of Mayfield, were both instrumental in saving face for their respective team.

CHAGRIN—20 ----- INDEPENDENCE—0

Both teams were at high pitch throughout the game but Chagrin's power was too much for the Blue Devils.

CHAGRIN—19 ----- OLMSTED FALLS—20

Olmsted was the first team to score on the Tigers at home. Although it was a non-league game, the battle with the men in blue and gold was one of the most heart-breaking contests of the season.

CHAGRIN—0 ----- ORANGE—6

Each year since 1949 the Tigers have been making the losing margin slimmer and slimmer. Next year the Lions will be ready for a good whipping.

CHAGRIN—14 ----- SOLON—7

Because of injuries the Fallsmen were not at their peak for the final game of the season. The Comets fought gamely but the Tigers managed to squeeze out a 14-to-7 victory.

Cheerleaders

FOOTBALL and basketball would not be complete without the enthusiasm and pep instilled in the spectators by our cheerleaders. They bring out noise and spirit from those who watch the game when the team needs that necessary extra thrust to get them out of a tight spot.

Betty Wendl, a junior, was chosen before the football season, and the addition of two more juniors—Bobbie Turner and Nancy Schroeder—helped to spur on the J.V.'s and make possible a larger variety of formations.

Football Lettermen

Roger Armstrong—Guard

Rog earned his first letter at guard this year. He always worked hard and did his best whenever called upon.

Al Cowhard—Tackle

Al hadn't played much football before he came to Chagrin. He learned the game quickly, however, and with hard work and determination made a fine tackle.

Bruce Crittenden—Tackle

Because of his size, Crit was moved from center to tackle where he earned his second letter. His hard charging and fighting spirit will be missed next year.

Hal Cubberley—Tackle

Although hampered early in the season by injuries, Hal had readily displayed his football prowess at tackle. His fighting spirit stayed with the team throughout the season.

Karl Hoekstra—End

In coach's opinion "Hoeky" is the greatest ball player he has ever coached. Besides receiving his second letter, Karl was named All-County end, was placed on the Cleveland News "Dream Team" and voted most valuable player on the squad. Too much can't be said about this 130-lb. sparkplug of courage and fighting spirit.

Bill Matthews—Halfback

Although handicapped with poor vision, Bill did a fine job as both an offensive and defensive halfback. Someone will have to work mighty hard to fill his shoes next year.

Ronald McCormick—Guard

For the second year now, Ron has suffered the only major injury of the season. His speed and drive were sorely missed in the Tigers' forward wall.

Larry Kachele—Fullback

Besides being able to get that needed yard, Larry proved himself a fine passer. He earned his third letter and was named All-County fullback. Larry was the heaviest man on the team and will be missed and remembered in years to come.

George Plzak—Center

George carried on the Plzak tradition of hard, consistent play. He played almost every minute of every ball game and did it well. Plaz received his second letter and was named center on the All-County second team.

Dave Ebel—End

Dave's constant chatter kept the team's spirit up—win, lose, or draw. Although he was one of the smallest ends in the league, he did a fine job against the best of them and earned his second letter.

Dave Farris—Quarterback

After the first few games Dave was given the job of running the team from the quarterback spot. He took it in his stride and did a commendable job of calling signals and passing.

Roger Hartman—End

Rog earned his first letter at end this year. He proved to be a good blocker and carried out his assignments well whenever needed.

Gary Matthews—Guard

Gary was perhaps the most improved player on the squad. His strength and determination combined to make Gary the bulwark of the offensive team. His grit and drive will be missed next year.

Don Toth—Halfback

Due to his exceptional speed and agility, Don could usually find a path through the opposing team to gain yards for the Tigers. His undying spirit will be long remembered at Chagrin.

Junior Lettermen

Pete Shelton—Halfback

Due to his fighting spirit and his speed, Pete did a good job on both offense and defense. This plus his punting ability will be looked forward to next year.

Dave Hill—Guard

Dave's ruggedness and ability to break through the line will give many opposing centers something to worry about for the next two years.

Mike McNally—Halfback

What Mike lacked in size he made up with agility that made him invulnerable to opposing tacklers. He should add a great deal to the backfield next year.

Bill Moyse—Guard

Bill played a rugged game at guard this year. He is sure to see a lot of action with the Tigers.

Ray Burton—Tackle

Although this was "Burt's" first year on the squad, it didn't take him long to catch up with the more experienced players. His size should bolster the line next year.

John Fitzpatrick—Quarterback

"Fitz", with his shifty running and excellent passing, could be counted on to pull the team through the tough spots. Whatever his position next year, he will do a good job.

Jim Crink—Center

Jim could always be counted on to step in and do a good job on both offense and defense. Next year he will probably play offensive center and defensive end.

Bob Hudson—Tackle

Bob's rugged tackling and his ability to take anything the opposing teams have to offer will be an asset to the team next year.

John Miller—End

John's height and ability to catch passes should make him an outstanding end next year.

Jim VanGorder—Halfback

Jim's speed and drive gained many yards for the Tigers. Much will be expected of him in the years to come.

Larry Wiley—Fullback

Larry played halfback, fullback and linebacker with much drive and determination. He'll be in there fighting for the next two years.

Pete VanNort—Quarterback

Pete won his letter this year mostly at defensive halfback, but for the next two years his passes will worry many opposing safety men.

Jerry Hawn, Dave Spanagle, Bill Lawyer, Ward Tilton. These managers are the boys who suffer the consequences if there isn't enough hot water or if the locker room is cold. Jerry received his second letter. Bill, Dave and Ward received their first. Their efforts were instrumental in bringing about a successful season.

Varsity Scores

Chagrin Falls 35 ----- Cuyahoga Heights 33

The Tigers showed their superiority by edging the Redskins in the league opener.

Chagrin Falls 43 ----- Bainbridge 44

The Fallsmen clicked again to subdue their friendly rivals on the loser's home court.

Chagrin Falls 40 ----- Independence 28

Paced by the high scoring of George Plzak, the Tigers won early over a taller Blue Devil team.

Chagrin Falls 57 ----- Western Reserve Academy 43

Chagrin continued its winning streak by whipping W.R.A. in an afternoon, non-league contest.

Chagrin Falls 57 ----- Brecksville 53

The Orange and Black rolled over the "Bees" in a close game. Brecksville's greater height was no match for the Tigers' spirit and skill.

Mayfield 55 ----- Chagrin Falls 32

An upset by the Wildcats brought to an end the five-game winning streak for the Tigers. The loss was hard to take.

Chagrin Falls 49 ----- Alumni 45

The Alumni held up pretty well, but when the final gun was fired the youngsters were on top.

Chagrin Falls 47 ----- Solon 34

The Tigers returned to their winning ways after the upset by Mayfield and romped over the Comets with ease.

Chagrin Falls 49 ----- Orange 42

After a see-saw battle with the Lions, the Tigers proved their worth by nosing out their rivals in the closing period.

Cuyahoga Heights 49 ----- Chagrin Falls 44

Although the margin of victory was in favor of the Redskins this time, they had to play their best to whip the Tigers.

Chagrin Falls 49 ----- Independence 33

Jack McFarland's twenty-two points sparked the Tigers in their second victory over the Blue Devils.

Mentor 56 ----- Chagrin Falls 42

The fast-breaking style of Mentor proved to be too much for the Tigers. Mentor's early lead was held throughout the game.

Brecksville 81 ----- Chagrin Falls 54

Chagrin was handicapped without the services of Jack McFarland and Roger Hartman, and as a result bowed to a taller Brecksville team.

Chagrin Falls 61 ----- Mayfield 59

The men of Chagrin avenged their upset by spilling the Wildcats in a close game. Dave Farris was high point man with twenty-three points.

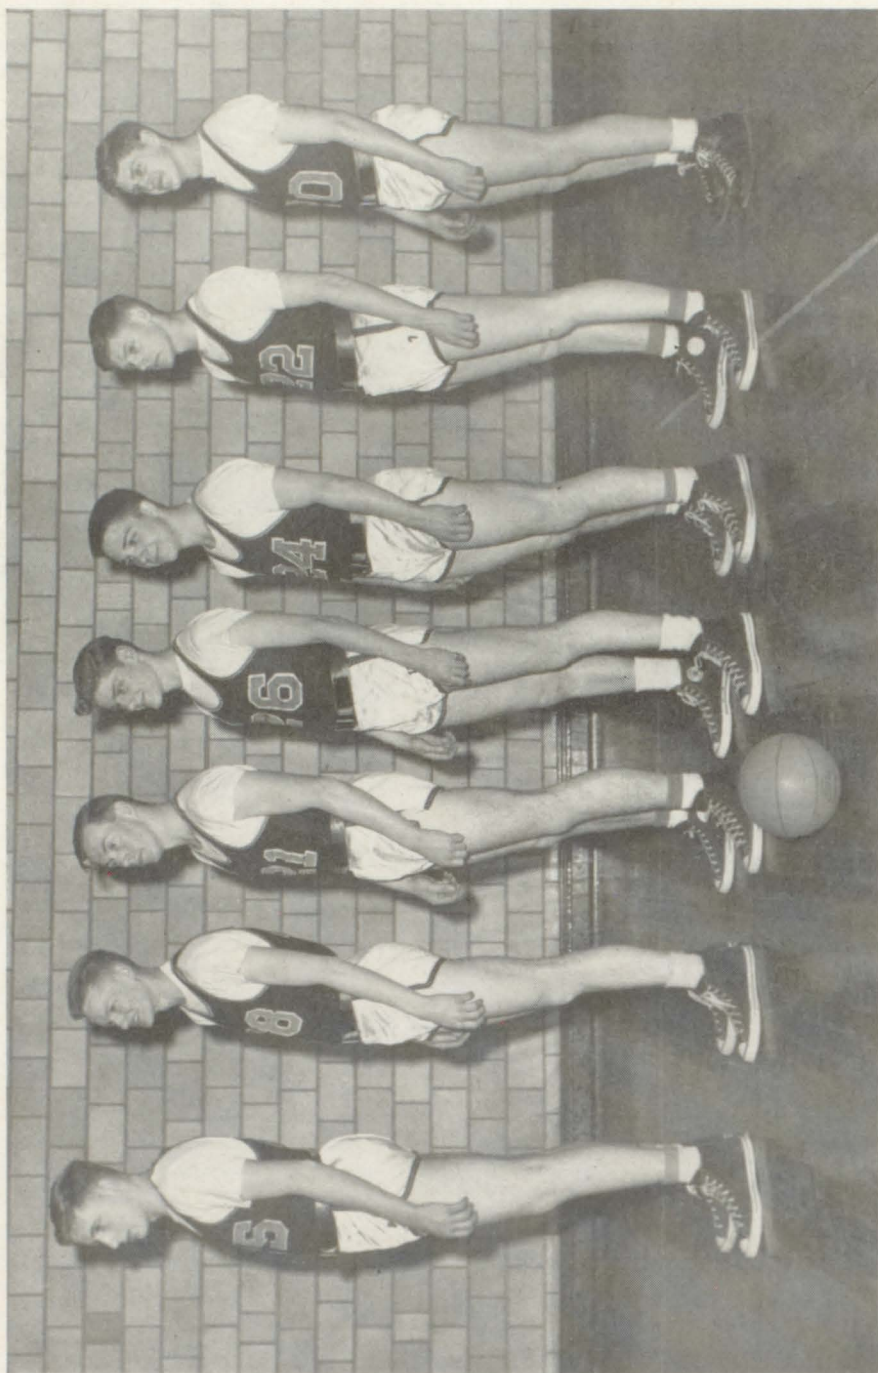

Chagrin Falls 62 ----- Solon 55

For the second time this season the Tigers outplayed and outscored the Comets.

Orange 66 ----- Chagrin Falls 47

The Tigers bowed to the Lions in the final game of a successful season. This was the last game for nine seniors.

Freshman Basketball

THE keen competition in the SOMAC league this year brought about a four-way tie for first place, with Chagrin, Orange, Mayfield and Warrensville sharing the crown. The fine material in the freshman class makes Chagrin's basketball future look bright.

Jokes

THE GREAT JAM

Packed in the huge oval was the colorful crowd, jammed in with scarcely room to breathe . . . row on row . . . layer on layer . . . the crushing mob was packed in . . . packed in, as someone said, like sardines . . . sardines . . . and the funny part of it is that they were sardines.

"How can you possibly go to sleep sitting in a chair?"

"You forget I spent four years in high school."

In England they never show comedies on Saturday night. They are afraid they'll start laughing in the churches.

"I don't know if you've heard what I've heard. I don't know what you've heard, but if you've heard what I've heard you've heard, you've heard wrong."

Why?

The Senior was born for great things;
The Junior was born for small.
But no one has yet found the reason
Why the Freshman was born at all.

"May I hold your Palm, Olive?"

"Not on your Life, Buoy."

"Then I'm out of Lux?"

"You sure are. Ivory Formed."

I kissed my first woman and smoked my first cigarette on the same day. I've never had time for tobacco since.

I wish Adam had died with all his ribs in his body.

It is good to be without vice, but it is not good to be without temptation.

Slowly, silently she yielded to his fond embrace. The great red moon smiled down in approval. As he clasped her in his arms and pressed a kiss on her upturned lips she softly murmured . . .

(To be continued in our next annual.)

It is easier to fight for one's principles than to live up to them.

If I hold her hand she thinks I'm bold;
If I don't she thinks I'm mighty cold;
If I muss her hair she calls her mother;
If I don't she is sure to call me "brother";
If I try to kiss her it's, "No you don't";
If not she'll entice me for fear I won't;
If I tell her my love she starts to cry;
If I don't it's, "Here's your hat—goodbye."
M'gosh, man, what am I going to do?

Wanted—A pair of scissors to cut classes.

"What is the difference between a modern and an old-fashioned kiss?"
"About five minutes."

I often quote myself; it adds spice to my conversation.

So of cheerfulness, or of good temper, the more it is spent, the more of it remains.

When I can't talk sense, I talk metaphor.

"A steady drinker died at the age of ninety-four, proving that liquor will get you eventually."

I believe in getting into hot water; it keeps you clean.

Chaste is she whom no one has asked.

Take honor from me, and my life is done.

I'm not arguing with you—I'm telling you.

I fooled the fates and graduated.

He was born silly and had a relapse.
