The 1954 ~ Zenith

Acknowledgment

WE, the Zenith Staff of 1954, in appreciation of the invaluable aid given us in the production of this, our yearbook, wish to extend our deepest thanks to Mr. Norman Fry, our advisor; Ellen and Bill Hood, photographers; Mr. Geo. Vance of the Tower Press; Mrs. Helen Daugherty of the Northern Engraving and Electrotype Company; the merchants and businessmen of Chagrin Falls; our parents and teachers; and everyone else who has helped to make the 1954 Zenith possible.

Foreword

SOMETIMES it must seem to you young people that the voices of doom are rampant in the land today. Often through newspapers, magazines, and novels you are given a sorry picture of the state of the world and of people in general. Too many timid souls warn you to be careful and cautious in planning your future. There is far too much existing and not enough real living along dynamic lines.

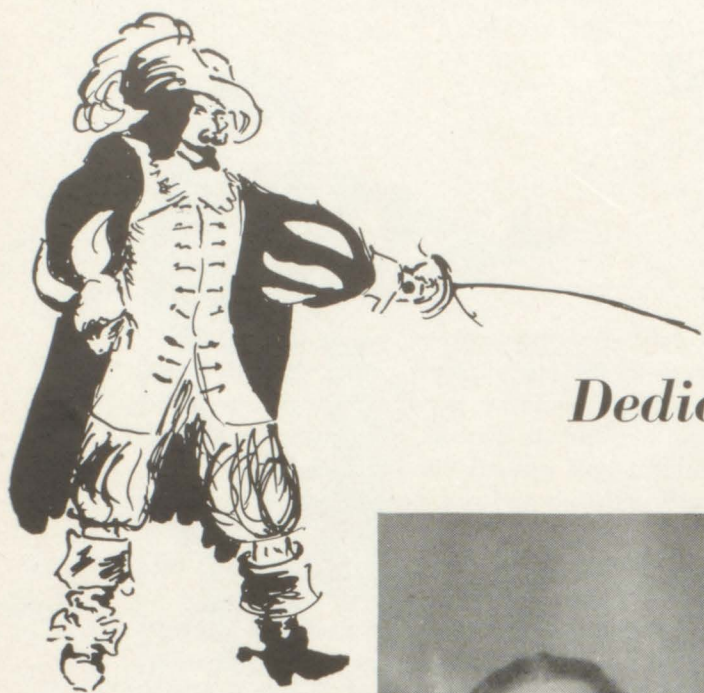

It may seem to you that this new age has not produced men that can measure up to those of other times. But this is not so. All you have to do is to think of the heights of courage and greatness to which men have risen in the last two years, and the sufferings and triumphs of the persecuted minorities of the world. Time and time again modern man has proved that the human spirit, desiring good, is still dominant and can win over the forces of destruction.

You are living in terrible, wonderful, soul-stirring times. You not only bear the brunt of the mistakes but you also enjoy the fruits of the age. And you will make your own contributions—some good, some bad—but as you are inherently decent and fine there is no doubt in my mind that you will try to do all you can to further the attainment of a better world.

Year after year Chagrin Falls turns out young men and women of purpose and integrity. This happens all over America, and as long as this is so there is no reason to be afraid or despair. Youth is the ray of hope that is ever shining upon the horizon of America.

Words that I wish you well cannot adequately express the depth and sincerity of my desire for your success and happiness in the future.

Miss Elsa Jane Carroll
Senior Class Advisor

Dedication

WE, the Class of 1954, in an attempt to express our most heartfelt gratitude for the concern shown for each one of us, sincerely dedicate our yearbook to Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wheatcraft.

We, the daring, determined, romantic, and risqué musketeers of nineteen hundred and fifty-four, with glistening swords held high and victory in our hearts, do proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

Article I. To the faculty we leave our plumed hats and velvet cloaks to remind them of our chivalrous deeds.

Article II. To those defiant juniors we leave our battered shield as a mainstay against overwhelming odds.

Article III. To those inquisitive sophomores we leave our knowledge of Chagrin's terrains, so that they may explore our old haunts.

Article IV. To the industrious freshmen we leave our unfinished castles in the air, in hopes that their capable hands will do them justice.

Article V. The Will:

I, Bob Hudson, do will and bequeath my square-toed football shoes to Coach Quesinberry for use on next year's varsity.

I, Mike McNally, do will and bequeath my "wittle bunny wabbit" to anyone who will feed her carrots until I return.

I, Sue Green, do will and bequeath my hair cutting scissors to Sally Schwerzler in hopes that she won't get as slap-happy with them as I did.

I, Robertia Turner, do will and bequeath all my carrots to anyone who can find me a picture of a "Naller".

I, Clark Cramer, do will and bequeath my Cadillac keys to anyone fortunate enough to own one.

I, Susan Bivkin, do will and bequeath my Bermuda shorts and red knee socks to next year's football team in hopes that they will become as conspicuous as I have by wearing them.

I, Eugene Best, do will and bequeath my nickname, "Pagan", to the South Sea islands whence it came.

I, Philip Blair, do will and bequeath my drumsticks to next year's Thanksgiving turkey.

I, Wanda Bruunfeld, do will and bequeath my rebel temperament to enhance Mr. Wagner's placid manner.

I, Ray Burton, do will and bequeath my collection of towels to the Independent Towel Supply Company for some promising junior to take next year.

I, Mike Carlton, do will and bequeath the two boxes of orange top football socks now in my possession to Coach Quesinberry.

I, Dave L. Cohn, do will and bequeath my excess pounds to Jayne Otis, in hopes.

I, Jayne Ellen Collier, do will and bequeath my musical talent to anyone foolish enough to think that I have any.

I, Jim Crink, do will and bequeath my ability to lead the Star Spangled Banner to next year's Student Council president, Pete Van Nort.

I, Wilma Cutshaw, do will and bequeath my quiet mannerisms to Carol Shelton, in hopes.

I, Jean Engelhardt, do will and bequeath my endless chatter to Miss Carroll, to counteract those quiet moments.

I, Lynn English, do will and bequeath Miss Carroll's pet name for me to Tom Matern so that he may become "Swivel Hips the Second."

I, Jon Fitzpatrick, do will and bequeath my view from Mr. Wheatcraft's window to any aspiring biologists.

I, Janet Fulton, do will and bequeath my reputation of a "giggling Gargantua" to Dolores McBride.

I, Dave Hladik, do will and bequeath the process of osmosis to Mr. Wheatcraft so that it will not be forgotten.

I, Robert Hunt, do will and bequeath my talented name to a certain member of the succeeding class.

I, Richard Jephson, do will and bequeath my knowledge of surrounding back roads to anyone who likes to watch the birds.

I, Jane Keal, do will and bequeath my bottle of peroxide to Mr. Wheatcraft's chemistry classes in hopes that they have better control of it than I did.

I, John Konyecsni, do will and bequeath my artistic lettering ability to the faculty for use in their ABC's.

I, Judy Kulcsar, do will and bequeath my ability to trip over tree stumps while carrying chocolate cake, to Marilyn Nichols.

I, Harry Lewis, do will and bequeath my style of wearing Levis to future physics students in their study of gravity.

I, John Miller, do will and bequeath my long, lanky frame to the girls who have always admired it.

I, Nancy Myers, do will and bequeath my firey red hair to light the bonfires of future football rallies.

I, Chariss Odenweller, do will and bequeath my height to Thelma Lee Harmon should she want to join a girls' basketball team.

I, Nancy Peach, do will and bequeath the mimeograph machine to the teachers, for whom it unfortunately never failed to operate.

I, Kay Robinson, do will and bequeath my deeply-set dimples to Mr. Gurney to be used as ink wells in his new office.

I, Helene Rock, do will and bequeath my collection of three-inch heels to Carol Hawthorne.

I, Nancy Schroeder, do will and bequeath my diary to the libraries of the world for historical reference.

I, Carol Scott, do will and bequeath my place in the school to my sister to uphold the Scott traditions.

I, Pete Shelton, do will and bequeath my football padding to the bleachers of Chagrin High to ease the pressure.

I, Stan Sindelar, do will and bequeath my natural blond hair to the peroxide gang.

I, Glenda Smith, do will and bequeath my majorette skirt to Mr. Richmond to improve the view in civics class.

I, Ronnie Steele, do will and bequeath the hayseeds in my hair to future class hayrides.

I, Thomas Arthur Stephan, Esquire, do will and bequeath my '42 Chevrolet Puddle-Jumper to anyone daring enough to drive it down a traveled road.

I, Ward Tilton, do will and bequeath my position in Key Club to anyone wishing to open locked doors.

I, Trudy Toso, do will and bequeath my accent to all those people who think it's "cute" (and they are welcome to it).

I, Lynn Ulrich, do will and bequeath my sewing ability to Miss McCreary's future home ec classes.

I, Betty Wendl, do will and bequeath my cheering sweater to the Chagrin Falls Tiger to keep him warm.

I, Jerry Worley, do will and bequeath my whiskers to auld lang syne.

UNDAUNTED by all perplexing obstacles, these peerless juniors have continually proved their prowess in any school activity. Honor and recognition have been gained for the class through the efforts of its boys on the gridiron and on the basketball court. Time and time again, their energy and perseverance have triumphed over opposing factions. Their ability to function as a group has successfully been shown by their dramatic interpretation of "Stranger in the Night", and by one of the social highlights of the year, "Twenty Below".

The intrinsic qualities of leadership and fortitude which they have so ably demonstrated will surely enlighten their senior year.

THIS capersome class shows a never-dying enthusiasm for all activities in which they engage. Whether it be in athletic or scholastic contests, the sophomores always come out ahead. Their versatility has been proven by the presentation of their first class dance, "Moonlight Magic", which was well received by everyone. Every year the members of this class affirm their varied talents while representing the orange and black.

Friendliness and a cooperative spirit will assure them of happiness in their future school years.

VIVACIOUSNESS appears to be the keynote of this enterprising class. Resourceful determination enables these zealous freshmen to succeed in any desired task. Their scholastic endeavors and competitive spirit in all athletics assure them of outstanding recognition for the remainder of their high school years. A preview of this prediction has been shown this year by their sterling performance in the SOMAC basketball league.

Blissfully content with just being themselves, their individuality will make the Class of '57 a credit to C.F.H.S.

Student Activities Council

SITTING: Hunt, Van Nort, Crink, Ulrich, Mrs. Johnson. STANDING: Stoa, Hoekstra, Rodgers, Green, Turner, Robinson, Smith, Spielhaupter, Stratton, Sherman, Haecker.

- President* .....JIM CRINK
- Vice-President* .....PETE VAN NORT
- Secretary* .....LYNN ULRICH
- Treasurer* .....MELINDA HUNT
- Advisor* .....MRS. JOHNSON

AFTER three years of service to the school, the council is beginning to attain the goals for which they had originally set their sights. Our most important project this year was the distribution of school handbooks, which were written by the Student Council and contain useful information concerning the operation and customs of the school system. The council is also in charge of all assembly programs, and is now rapidly becoming an essential organization in the school.

Honor Society

SITTING: English, Smith, Birkin, Odenweller, Miss Carroll. STANDING: Hunt, Cramer, Tilton, Bowers, Wiley, Schwerzler, VanNort, Giffhorn, Jones, Smith, Harmon.

OUR band performed various half-time ceremonies throughout the football season, and took active part in the crowning of the football queen. When football season ended, a pep band, under the direction of Osborne Dodson, entertained at home basketball games. After we combined talents with Solon, Orange, and Mayfield in a musical program, we then presented our own annual concert. The season drew to a successful close with the Memorial Day Parade.

NEWLY chartered this fall, the Frank W. Stanton Club has had a very successful year, and is looking forward to many more like it. This organization, composed of high school students in the three upper grades, is directly associated with the local, State, and National Future Teachers of America Association.

The club was primarily formed to interest students in the teaching profession, and that desire is stimulated through various projects and educational programs. Many projects are now in progress, and others are being planned for future years.

Zenith Calendar

● SEPTEMBER

Solemnly we trudge back to "dear old CFHS" to find the bright new faces of Mr. Richmond, Mr. McCalmont, Mr. Jenoff, Mr. Shields, Mr. Wagner, and "Mrs." Wheatcraft . . . Cuyahoga Heights plays host to the annual Round Robin as Chagrin defeats Brooklyn 6-0 . . . Tigers triumph over Kenston 13-0 in a daytime preview . . . GAA and Y-Teens begin the social swing with initiation and installation services . . . Tigers roll on, defeating Brecksville 28-0; players and their dates are entertained after the game at Burton's.

● OCTOBER

Chagrin continues its drive, walloping Independence 45-6 in a daytime contest; juniors enjoy a spaghetti feast at Wiley's after the game . . . Tigers give their all against a rugged Mayfield team, and win 13-0 . . . Hopes for the championship increase as we defeat Cuyahoga Heights 18-13; Cramer's play hosts to the squad and their dates following the game . . . We enjoy a party at Hudson's after handing Gilmour Academy a 25-6 defeat . . . Rain darkens the festivities of the annual Orange pep rally . . . Lynn Ulrich reigns as annual Football Queen, with Judy Kulesar, Marilyn Nichols, Cindy Arnold, and Kaye Spielhaupter as her attendants . . . Orange hands us our first defeat of the season, 13-0; this week's party is held at Fitzpatrick's . . . We enjoy a brief vacation as teachers attend their annual convention . . . Seniors present their Halloween carnival while the football players journey to Columbus to witness an Ohio State football game.

● NOVEMBER

Seniors take a morning off to wash windows suffering from the effects of Halloween . . . Solon brings our football season to a disheartening close, halting us 18-0 . . . GAA and Varsity Clubs unite to present the first dance of the year . . . Jon Fitzpatrick receives the "Most Valuable Player" Award, and he and Pete Shelton win the Field Day Awards . . . Jim Van Gorder receives an award for the best playbook from the squad . . . Seniors display their dramatic talents in their production of "Stardust" . . . Odenweller's hold a party for the cast and their dates . . . Basketball season gets underway as Chagrin edges Burton . . . Time out from school affairs to enjoy Thanksgiving and all the trimmings . . . Bob Hudson receives Rotary Gold Book Award.

● DECEMBER

Mentor halts Tigers on the opponent's floor . . . We lose a heart-breaker to Cuyahoga Heights, but easily defeat Independence . . . Tigers are defeated in a Saturday contest with Western Reserve Academy, but retaliate with a win against Brecksville . . . Choral Club presents its annual Christmas Concert . . . Y-Teenagers enjoy their Christmas Formal in the gaily decorated cafeteria; Betty Wendl is crowned Y-Teen Queen of 1953 . . . . Vacation begins, and so do the basketball tournaments at Burton, from which the Tigers win a trophy . . . . "Oldsters" are defeated in the annual Alumni game . . . . Everyone welcomes in the New Year at the Youth Fellowship Dance, or at various parties.

● JANUARY

Back to the everyday drudgery of school . . . . Tigers defeat Kenston, and proceed to whip Mayfield in one of the most exciting games of the year . . . . Solon visits us on our home floor and hands us a bitter defeat . . . . Seniors present their unusual rendition of "Showboat" . . . . Orange blasts Tigers on our home court . . . . Chagrin GAA-ers visit Orange, and return home with a defeat in volleyball . . . . Approximately eight Seniors journey to Orange to take Senior tests . . . . Semester tests tear students away from extra-curricular activities to spend a week of "hitting the books."

● FEBRUARY

Basketball season draws to a close with the playoffs at Solon . . . . Chagrin's band combines talents with bands from Solon, Mayfield, and Orange to present an enjoyable concert at Orange High School . . . . With a sigh of relief, juniors complete their term papers, and begin to concentrate on play practices . . . . Juniors entertain students with their stupendous dance.

● MARCH

With basketball season ended, a lull in activities is apparent . . . . Key Club entertains the student body with a fabulous formal . . . . Juniors present their dramatic endeavor, "Stranger in the Night" . . . . Coach and Miss Brown present their combined effort, the annual gym show.

● APRIL

After a well-earned spring vacation, track season is upon us . . . . Choral Clubs from Chagrin, Solon, Mayfield, and Orange unite their vocal talents to present a concert, followed by a dance for all choral club members and their dates . . . . Sophomores illustrate their originality by presenting their class dance, "Moonlight Magic."

● MAY

Closing track season, seniors turn to planning their senior assembly and round of parties . . . . The usual laughter and tears accompany the seniors' last presentation on the stage of CFHS . . . . Tears are soon dried by the magnificent banquet and prom staged by the juniors.

● JUNE

With a final flourish of diplomas, handshakes, and parties, seniors will and bequeath their position as rulers of CFHS to the Class of '55.

FOR our last thespian endeavor, the Class of '54 proudly presented Stardust, a farce concerning the problems of a typical dramatic school. The high school auditorium rang with merrily laughter as the audience experienced all the mirth and hilarity which the sundry portrayals expressed. The stuffy, conventional director, Mr. Bach, was the leading figure around which the play revolved, and his prepossessing mannerisms captured everyone's fancy. The aspiring, stage-struck students added greatly to the play's enjoyment, for their exuberant escapades stressed all the animation and liveliness of the younger generation. After the curtain closed on the final act, many persons felt happier and brighter, as if stars had nestled in their eyes and bits of theater dust had settled in their veins.

TIGERS IN ACTION

Athletic Council

THE Athletic Council is composed of the high school superintendent, principal, coaches, and two boys elected from the student body. The purpose of this faculty-student board is to handle all financial matters dealing with athletics and to approve all sports events and awards. The council meets regularly to discuss and settle the affairs of the athletic department. It is through their efforts that the students and the parents alike may enjoy a more carefully planned and better functioning athletic program in the school.

Football Team

Chagrin Falls 6 ----- Brooklyn 0

A fifty-two yard drive, climaxed by Jon Fitzpatrick's score from the thirteen-yard line, enabled Chagrin to win its first pre-season game since 1947. Chagrin's aggressiveness and experience proved to be the difference in this County Round Robin contest.

Chagrin Falls 13 ----- Kenston 0

Chagrin opened the 1953 season by defeating Kenston by only two touchdowns. Because of costly fumbles many Tiger scoring opportunities were halted. Mike McNally pushed over both markers and Pete Shelton added a placement.

Chagrin Falls 28 ----- Brecksville 0

The Tigers proved that they would be one of the top contenders for the East County championship by smashing a spirited Brecksville squad. Jon Fitzpatrick led the scoring with three touchdowns and Pete Shelton scored the fourth on a long pass play.

Chagrin Falls 45 ----- Independence 6

The much heavier and more experienced Tiger squad rolled over Independence with an impressive 45-to-6 victory without much resistance from the Blue Devils.

Chagrin Falls 13 ----- Mayfield 0

Chagrin furthered its chances of becoming League champs by downing Mayfield in a bruising and hard-fought contest in which Fitzpatrick tallied his seventh touchdown of the season.

Chagrin Falls 18 ----- Cuyahoga Heights 13

The Redskin's passing attack almost proved an upset for the Falls-men. However, Chagrin was able to intercept two passes which resulted into touchdowns and the Tigers squeezed by 18 to 13.

Chagrin Falls 25 ----- Gilmour Academy 6

Although Gilmour tied the score in the first period at 6 and 6, Chagrin fought back to score a touchdown in each of the remaining periods and defeat the Lancers in an independent game.

Chagrin Falls 0 ----- Orange 13

Chagrin's hopes for the championship and an undefeated season were shattered by their rivals from Orange. The Tigers didn't play up to par, and the Lion's power and determination were too much for Chagrin who was knocked from the top spot in the East County League.

Chagrin 0 ----- Solon 18

Chagrin suffered its second defeat of the season to an underrated Solon team. The Comets were successful in halting the Tiger attack and in ruining the last game for nine seniors.

Cheerleaders

WHETHER it be in trim, tapered slacks or short, swirling skirts, the cheerleaders manage to transform a mass of spectators into a unified cheering crowd, thrusting the team on to victory. Unfaltering in their school loyalty, they add pep and vitality to the gridiron and basketball court with their winning smiles and enthusiastic spirits. Newer and better formations were originated this year, thus making our gals with the megaphones six of the best cheerleaders who have ever defended the Tigers' honor.

Football Lettermen

Ray Burton—Tackle

Ray was the heaviest man on the squad, and probably the heaviest in the County League. His ability was recognized by receiving a position on the Cleveland News "Dream Team", and being named All-County tackle.

Clark Cramer—End

Although Brud was lacking in size, he played his position well, and his great determination enabled him to receive his first varsity letter this year.

Jim Crink—Center

Jim earned his second letter at center this year, and could always be counted on to split the uprights for that extra point.

Jon Fitzpatrick—Halfback

"Fitz" was considered as one of the best running halfbacks in the county. His speed and deception enabled him to break loose from the opposition and gain much yardage. Because of his ability and leadership he was placed on the Cleveland News "Dream Team", and voted Co-Captain and most valuable player on the squad.

Bob Hudson—Tackle

Bob's size and strength was a determining factor in the Tiger line throughout the season. His spirit and fortitude were recognized by the fact that he was awarded the annual Rotary Gold Book Award.

Mike McNally—Fullback

"Naller" displayed his versatility in the backfield as he played both halfback and fullback for the Tigers. Regardless of his size he sparked the defensive team and was always a threat to the opposition's passing attack.

John Miller—End

Not only was John capable of playing his offensive position well, but his alertness as defensive end greatly stabilized the Tigers' defense.

Pete Shelton—End

"Fred" was perhaps one of the best all-around football players in the history of Chagrin Falls. His outstanding ability and reputation as a triple threat in passing, running, and kicking enabled him to secure a position on the All-County team. Pete's teammates showed their appreciation by electing him Co-Captain of the Tiger squad.

Jerry Worley—Guard

Jerry was always willing to fill in at a guard position anytime he was needed. His aggressiveness and industrious attitude helped him to earn his first letter this season.

Phil Banning—End

Phil proved to be a competent pass receiver and was very capable of playing his end position well. He should see a lot of action with the Tigers next year.

Bob Butler—Quarterback

Bob earned his first letter this season mostly as a defensive back. His excellent tackling and alertness made him a threat to many opposing teams.

Phil Cleaveland—Guard

Phil played a rugged and determined game at his guard position. Much will be expected of him next year in the Tigers' forward wall.

Al Flynn—End

After a year of absence, Al returned to Chagrin and turned in a fine performance as a defensive end. He received his first varsity letter this year.

Dave Hill—Guard

Dave will probably be one of the best linemen in the league next fall. His savage charge made it uncomfortable for opposing centers, and his hard blocking was greatly appreciated by his teammates.

Joel Jones—Quarterback

Joel was unable to finish the season because of a hand injury, but his dependable services in the first half of the season strengthened the Tigers' offensive and defensive backfield.

Bill Moyse—Center

Switching from guard to center seemed to agree with Bill as he performed very well throughout the season. He will be a mainstay in the Tiger line next fall.

Stan Stoney—Guard

Stan was perhaps the most improved player on the squad. His ability to break open the opposing line enabled the Tiger backs to gain much yardage.

Jim Van Gorder—Halfback

Speed and agility were all that was necessary for Jim to break loose for many long runs. His position in the Tigers' pony back combination proved deadly to the opposition many times during the season.

Pete Van Nort—Quarterback

Although Pete was considerably tall for a quarterback, he did a commendable job directing the team through many victories. His leadership and excellent ball-handling will be greatly appreciated next fall.

Larry Wiley—Fullback

Larry's services were lost to the Tigers in the latter part of the season because of an injury. However, his powerful running and outstanding ability as a linebacker were recognized by the fact that he was named Press Star by many coaches representing opposing teams.

Charles Yunkes—Tackle

Bud gained enough experience at tackle this season to earn his first letter and to prepare himself for a starting position next year in the Tiger line.

George Camp—Fullback

Although only a sophomore, George possesses the qualities needed to become an outstanding player in his remaining years. His size and weight will strengthen the Tiger backfield in years to come.

Gary Curtiss—Halfback

Gary proved to be a fine kicker and hard runner. He will be a promising prospect for a starting role next year.

Ward Tilton, Mike Carlton, Tom Mattern, Mark Smith—Managers

This year these managers turned in another fine job as the men behind the scenes. Ward received his second letter, and Mike, Tom, and Mark received their first. Their work and dependability were highly appreciated by the entire squad and by the coaches as well.

Head Coach Ralph Quesinberry

Coach, completing his seventh year as head mentor at Chagrin, proved again that he can always produce an outstanding football team. His individual interest in the boys he coached made him very popular, and because of their admiration for him the team always tried to come up with another victory.

Varsity Scores

Chagrin 54 ----- Burton 50

The Tigers opened the 1953-'54 basketball season with a thrilling victory over a stubborn Burton team. Wiley led the victors with seventeen points.

Chagrin 57 ----- Mentor 68

Mentor's height and shooting percentage proved to be too much for Chagrin in an independent game at Mentor.

Chagrin 55 ----- Cuyahoga Heights 70

Chagrin bowed to a strong Heights team in the league opener, as the Redskins surged ahead to an easy victory in the second half.

Chagrin 63 ----- Independence 35

In the opening game at home the Tigers took advantage of numerous breaks to defeat the Blue Devils and record their first league victory.

Chagrin 40 ----- Western Reserve Academy 58

The Tigers led at the half, but in the final periods W.R.A.'s fast break proved to be fatal to a confused Chagrin team in an afternoon, non-league contest.

Chagrin 61 ----- Brecksville 52

Teamwork and a well-balanced attack were the determining factors as Chagrin led most of the way and was able to return home with its second league win.

Chagrin 54 ----- Alumni 50

In a hard-fought game with their former teammates, the Tigers edged a spirited Alumni team in a tense overtime.

Chagrin 52 ----- Kenston 22

Paced by Van Nort's nineteen points, the Fallsmen completely outmaneuvered their opponents, as Chagrin's defense held the Bombers to a low score.

Chagrin 61 ----- Mayfield 59

Again the Tigers showed their superiority by defeating a reluctant Mayfield team in the few remaining seconds of an unpredictable game.

Chagrin 55 ----- Solon 59

In spite of Wiley's vain effort of fourteen points, Chagrin was no match for Solon's fast break and was forced to suffer defeat.

Chagrin 54 ----- Orange 67

Although Chagrin held an impressive eighteen-point lead early in the game, the indispensable Lion quintet came from behind to knock the Tigers from a stable spot in the County League.

Chagrin 41 ----- Cuyahoga Heights 57

Chagrin was still unable to get back on its feet again, and was forced to drop its third in a row to a powerful Redskin team.

Chagrin 74 ----- Independence 45

The Tigers finally recovered themselves as they easily romped over Independence with a stimulating 74 to 45 victory.

Chagrin 49 ----- Brecksville 57

The "Bees" avenged a previous loss in a fast-moving game. Van Nort and Wiley contributed thirty points, but it was not enough to defeat a greatly improved Brecksville five.

Chagrin 52 ----- Mayfield 68

The Wildcats were successful in ruining Chagrin's senior night, as Spence Hendrick tallied thirty-one points for Mayfield.

Chagrin 61 ----- Solon 58

Center John Miller's two points in the last four seconds of playing time provided the winning margin in the Tigers' best performed game of the season.

Chagrin 65 ----- Orange 58

The Tigers ended their regular season play with an inspiring upset victory over the County Champs. Van Nort sparkplugged Chagrin's offense with twenty-three points.

Burton Invitational Tournaments

In the month of December, Burton, Ohio, was the scene of a non-league tournament playoff. Teams from Chagrin, Burton, Garrettsville, and Perry all participated, but it was Chagrin who triumphantly returned home with the championship trophy. In both games the Tigers were high in team scoring and in individual scoring, which was evidence of their excellent performance at Burton.

Chagrin 72 ----- Perry 66

Led by Crink's twenty-one points, the Tigers came from behind to defeat Perry in a close and exciting contest.

Chagrin 73 ----- Garrettsville 57

In the championship fray Chagrin skillfully trounced Garrettsville. Van Nort astounded the spectators with a total of twenty-eight points for the evening.

Varsity

John Miller—Center

John's timely jump shots enabled him always to dazzle the opposition and to score many important points for the Tigers throughout the season. His absence next year will leave a large gap in Chagrin's offense.

Jim Crink—Forward

Many times Jim's excellent shooting ability pulled the Tigers out of a tight spot, and led them on to victory. His left-handed shots will surely be missed next basketball season.

Bob Hudson—Forward

Although Bob wasn't a regular, he played more than enough to earn his letter. Because of his height and ability to control the backboards, he could always be counted on to strengthen the Tigers' defense whenever needed.

Larry Wiley—Guard

Larry's deadly set shots from mid-court turned the tide in numerous games. Although opposing teams guarded him very closely, he continued to chalk up many points, and to place himself as runner-up in the Tiger scoring.

Pete Van Nort—Forward

Because of his height and accuracy, Pete was the Tigers' highest scorer this year, and was rightly placed on the East County All Star Team. He will be a great asset to next year's team, and is sure to be one of the outstanding basketball players in the county.

Charles Jenkins—Guard

Chuck transferred to Chagrin from Glenville this year and contributed his talents to our varsity basketball team. His deceptive ball handling and "know-how" of the game proved to be the determining factors in several contests.

Coach Don Hagen
Beginning his second year as head basketball coach, Mr. Hagen was confronted with several perplexing problems concerning the team. However, because of his love for the game and the admiration he holds for the boys on the team, he was successful in turning out a competent ball club with a fine season record.

Larry Harmon—Manager
In his second year as basketball manager, Larry was always willing to contribute his services, and to offer his assistance whenever he could. He performed his duties well throughout the season, and the entire team appreciated his efforts.

Dave Cohn—Official Scorer
This year will end Dave's four dependable years as custodian of all team statistics. Although he was unable to participate in athletics himself, Dave continued to maintain an enthusiasm for all sports, as he faithfully and accurately compiled complete records on each player throughout the season. His work will long be remembered by the coaches and by the players as well at Chagrin.

Junior Varsity

FIRST ROW: Sekeres, Robbins, Lauterer, Engstrom, Mattern, Curtiss. SECOND ROW: Bradley, Stratton, Stoney, Banning.

The "B" Team experienced a rough year, finishing the season with only eight victories in seventeen contests. However, with the experience gained from playing also with the varsity, these boys should put next year's "A" Team at the top of the league.

We, the Musketeers of the Zenith Staff, wish to doff our hats in hearty appreciation to the patrons and businessmen of the Chagrin Valley for their generous support. Their trades and professions make the Chagrin Valley a better place in which to live, work, and do business. We urge you to patronize their shops and use their services, for they sell and serve you only the finest.

Class Motto

It is only at trees
That bear good fruit
That stones are thrown.
"Plague"

Class Flower

Red and White Carnation

Class Colors

Blue and White

With trumpets blaring, swords held high,
We exit with a fond good-bye,
To all those souls from year to year
Who helped us conquer, not to fear.

The final deed is ended now,
We step before you in a courtly bow;
Wishing you fortune and joy galore
From the Musketeers of fifty-four.
