Foreword

with...

Dr.

David
Axler

The terrorist's acts of September 11, 2001, still remind us of the dangers that face us each day as we continue with the war on terrorism. The war in Iraq and Afghanistan serves as a daily reminder of the complexity and difficulty of fully winning this war. In addition to the daily coverage of the war, politics also were prominently featured in the media this year. Many of our seniors voted for the first time in the 2004 Presidential election, one of the most highly contested elections this country has ever witnessed. Besides the war, rising health costs, education and other domestic issues dominate the news. You will be our future and soon will take your part in helping to reshape and determine this country's policies.

As these conflicts swirled around us, the end of the 2004 - 2005 brings a close to another exceptional school year led by a dynamic senior class. Chagrin Falls High School was recognized as a 2004 National Blue Ribbon School, which is one of the most prestigious awards a high school can receive. Once again our district received the top rating of Excellent on our State Report Card. Both awards are indicative of our talented student body and our outstanding data from test scores, attendance, and graduation rate.

This year's Zenith displays a snap shot of the 2004 - 2005 school year and captures the accomplishments and recognitions that were bestowed upon the high school. As our seniors prepare for their next step in life and begin their journey to college, the work place or overseas, the memories of this year will fade but not be forgotten thanks to a dedicated Zenith staff and their exceptional effort to chronicle this past school year.

I want to recognize and congratulate the outstanding 2005 Zenith staff on creating an exciting yearbook. It is clear that this year's Zenith has fulfilled its goal of giving our students an accurate and vivid account of this school year. On behalf of the Chagrin Falls Board of Education and administration, I extend a warm greeting to each of you as you review this year's edition.

Another year began, bringing in a new class of freshmen feeling a strange mix of nervousness and excitement. The sophomore class remembered that feeling all too well as they began to find their niche in the school. The newly required Ohio Graduation Test gave the class of 2007 a taste of the expectations to come in junior year. Sophomore Anya Ewing said, "The administration strongly stresses the importance of passing the OGT. However, after taking it, I don't think it will be a struggle in years to come." Before advancing to their long-awaited senior year, the juniors went through all the rigors the prior classes have endured. They slowly adapted to the challenge of AP classes, the new SAT test, and college preparation. Members of the senior class enthusiastically fulfilled their role as leaders of the school with their catchy slogan, "Senior Dudes". With all the uncertainties, stresses, and pressures high school brings, the people that filled the halls of CFHS made the year fun-filled and absolutely unforgettable. By: Kerry Chemnitz

▲ Mo Gardner, Dan Lang, Drew Ward, Quinn Canter, Raquel Grigera, and Phoebe Brown wear their uniforms proudly at Meet the Teams Night.

▲ "Junior year is a lot harder than sophomore year. I like it because it is a challenge."
-Katharine Dean

▲ "My schedule is pretty demanding, so in one word, I would describe junior year as firing."
-Kevin Chisolm

▲ Kelsey Owen, Will Murphy, Alex Arsham, and Allison Plante enjoy a meal at Quaker Steak.

sports

This year's sports teams flourished under the new athletic director, John Farrell. Mr. Farrell comments on his first year in the new position, "It is a blessing to be part of a school with such talent in so many athletic areas. Although I have only been part of the Chagrin Falls Community for two years, I can feel the Orange and Black running through my veins." The former athletic director, Lenny May, celebrated 34 years of service in the Chagrin Falls District. About his service, colleague Bob Lonchar fondly remarks, "His philosophy was not that of an athletic director who just maintained a program. He believed in always looking for ways to make the program better; facilities, funding, etc." Mr. May continues to participate in the school district as a part-time community relations director. In football, after finishing 1st in the CVC, the team proudly supported stand-out athlete, Brian Robiskie, as he signed on to the OSU football squad. Chagrin athletes crowded the State Tournaments with two Girls' Cross Country runners and several golfers qualifying for the state championship. Both the fall and winter sports teams upheld the outstanding tradition of Chagrin Falls sports through athletes' work ethic, willingness to improve, and ability to succeed. By: Bridget Clegg

BREAKIN' THE TREND

A great season chock full of accomplishment describes the 2004 season. Ending the regular season undefeated in the CVC and only losing three games, including their final defeat, overall marks success for a team that hasn't played in a neutral stadium in three years. Heading into the playoffs, the team was confident in their performance at home against the Massillon Tuslaw Mustangs. After being down by 8 after a fumble recovery by the Mustangs, the tigers rallied back to score 4 unanswered touchdowns, ending the game with a score of 26-8. With this win, the Tigers arrived at a neutral stadium in West Branch to face higher-seeded Cardinal Mooney. Through the bitter-cold night, the game looked even until a devastating return by Mooney began a winning margin that never went down. Even with this loss in the regional semi-finals, the team ended as one of the best in recent years, especially with the eruption of dominating play by wide receiver Brian Robiskie and running back Josh Menendez, who broke school record in a game with 316 rushing yards against the Perry Pirates. With a record to be proud of and a return to the upper playoffs, this year's Tigers set a tough precedent to follow and will be a great role model for future teams.

Girls' Soccer

'AVEDA KEDARVA!'

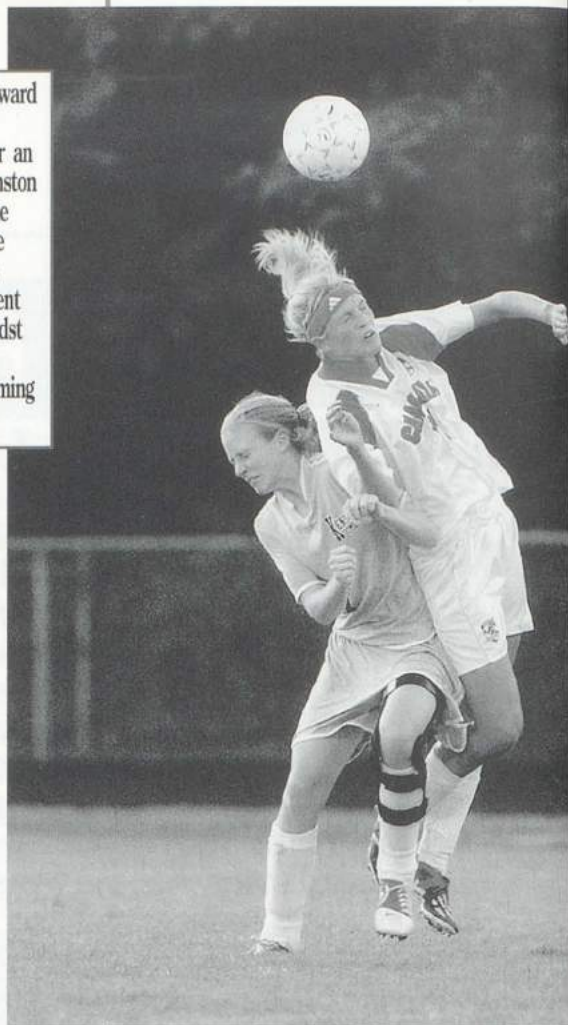

The sport of soccer

tests the strength, skill, and character of a team. Passing that test was never a problem for the 2004 Lady Tigers Soccer Team. The girls trained relentlessly in Coach McKenna's frigid fall runs. Their acquired endurance paid off in cases like their win over Pickerington North, a team ranked #8 in Div. I at the time, where the girls came back from a losing score (2-1) and scored three second-half goals to win 4-3. The game defined the team's capabilities, raised their ranking to #2 in Div. II, and set the pace for the rest of the season. The capability of the team supercede endurance and speed, however, to an uncommon level of skill. Year-round club soccer players comprised the entire starting lineup and eleven of the total roster of fifteen girls. "The way the girls can make up these complex passing combinations with impressive footwork in the mix of things so naturally really differentiates them from everyone else," says Matt Olsson, captain of the boys' soccer team. But most of all, the team's unsurpassable spirit based the recipe for a CVC Championship, a Regional Semi-final and a 15-1-3 season. The girls (especially the seven seniors) had an underlying incentive driving their play: the eventual State Champions (Walsh Jesuit and Bay Village) had thwarted their efforts to win a state title each year since 2001. Their chance to terminate the pattern came after battling to the Region semifinals (the final sixteen teams in the state) where they would face Bay. They were cautiously confident... played with heart... but... In the end they were unsuccessful. Hathaway Brown took the state title, a private school team whom the Lady Tigers had tied 2-2 earlier in the season. Although their path to states was cut short, their season was marked with team unity. Their comradeship went back to travel soccer in elementary years. Senior defender Sara Stricker explains, "Although every girl on this team is not part of my 'close group of friends,' each one is my favorite person from her own individual clique. Most of us go back to third grade! We are like sisters."

TIGER DASH

The 2004 Boys' Cross Country team experienced a "transforming" year, with only four returning runners and seven rookies on the team, five of which were freshmen. The men learned what it was to become apart of the team with an intense summer training from Coach Kirk. Determination and leadership really gave the Boys' Cross Country team its drive this year, lead by strong runners Seniors Steve McGibony and Nick Barcelo. With this support, the team made it to Regionals. The men had to deal with tough competition such as Aurora and University School, as well as three of the top ten individuals in the state in their league. Although facing these opponents was a challenge for the boys, Junior runner Pat Cogan and Freshman Graham Fishell brought the team to victory at the CVC with Pat Cogan and Steve McGibony bringing home honorable mentions. After placing 5th in the Chagrin Valley Conference meet, runners Pat Cogan and Graham Fishell continued on to Districts at Perry High School where they placed 9th of 12. Graham Fishell, who ran a 17:24, had a breakout meet along with Freshman Kevin Cogan, getting a 20:35. Both of them set their best personal times. Finishing the season strongly, five of the seven runners got their best times in the grueling meet. The boys' goal of making it to States next year may have stemmed from Coach Kirk's reminder at every meet that, "It takes about 1,000 miles to get to the State Meet." Next year the men will definitely be ready for the tough competition, with a solid core of eager runners.

Girls' Cross Country

POUNCING ON THE COMPETITION

The Girls' Cross Country team pleased their spectators with a hugely successful season. Their unprecedented defeat of Perry at the Chagrin Valley Conference Championship meet allowed the team to take first place. Coach Serluco beams, "The girls' team won the CVC for the first time in ten years!" After placing 2nd at Districts and 14th at Regionals, the team sent two runners, Junior Karen Corson and Sophomore Katie Stancik, to the State Championship Meet. Both Karen and Katie placed in the top 50% of runners at Columbus. As always, the girls managed to bond as a team through their numerous camp-outs, movies, football games, and sleepovers.

Golf

CUBS WITH CLUBS

The distinguished golfers of the varsity team exceeded all expectations right from the start. Through the season the boys showed their excellence, going 15-3 through the regular season and undefeated with 10 wins in the CVC. One major highlight included, finishing 3rd in the 24-team Wooster Invitational with a score of 308, as the only participating Division II team. After grabbing victory in the conference championship, their confidence in performing well during the upcoming state championship received a great boost. During the state sectionals, the golfers won first place on top of fifteen teams and headed off to play in the district finals. By winning second place, they ensured their spot in the state championship and were pumped to represent the school. They achieved one of their greatest goals when they arrived on the Ohio State Campus to play for the state cup, proving their position as one of the top golf teams in Division II. When the dust settled, the Tigers emerged with a 7th place finish overall, forever cementing the team as one of the school's greatest. The 2004 varsity golf team set the bar as high as any, and following years will not only have the achievement but also the confidence to continue the legacy in the years to come.

LET LOOSE

Tiger tennis rallied to a 9-8 record this season!

With tough matches against Hathaway Brown, Laurel, Orange, and an amazing win against long-time rival Hawken, the season was everything but easy. This year's captain was returning senior Allie Lozon, leading new seniors Caitlin Smith, Nadia Zaim, Bethany Tallman, Laura Coleman, and McKenna Leonetti. Other newcomers include juniors Kelsey Owen, Anna Gillespie, and Tara Nadeau, who all brought excitement to the team. Throughout the season, returning 1st and 2nd singles players Rachel Hinman and Alexa Leone racked up some important matches for the team. Even though the Tigers couldn't take first place away from the Orange Lions in the CVC, their 2nd place finish left nothing to mope about. This season's tennis team knew how to work hard and have fun at the same time.

Girls Basketball

BOUNCING OFF THE WALLS

Olympic decathlon gold medalist, Dan O'Brien, once said, "The only way to overcome is to hang in." The Girls' Basketball team struggled through a season of tough competition, but managed to win some important victories. Freshman Jen Caiola commented, "One of the most exciting moments of the season was our close game against Aurora. We won by one point, but it was a fight until the end. I was so relieved, but really happy, when I heard the final buzzer." Under the direction of Head Coach Phillips and Assistant Coach Shannon Beach, the team focused on defense this year, while Trish Kruse concentrated on the Lady Tigers' offense. Although the girls suffered a loss the first time they played West Geauga, the team united to execute a big win against their rival during the second half of the season. The astonishing six seniors led the team in upholding the successful tradition of Chagrin Girls' Basketball.

Gymnastics

DELICATE YET FIERCE

Hard work and dedication define this year's gymnastics squad. With after school practices during the week and extra training on Saturdays, the team was ready for anything. "My favorite practice day is Thursday because we get to practice on the bars and run around the halls for twenty minutes," explains Lin Haldamen. However, not everyone left practice in perfect shape. Throughout the season, two freshmen, Kim Keesler and Jessica Wyszynski, and one senior, Holly Jacobs, were injured. In spite of these team downers, the team did not lose its footing and continued to improve their various routines and workouts. Upon their return, the team grew even closer, as any family would after regaining a member. Overall, the gymnastics squad finished the season in high spirits, showing off their dedication and love of the sport to every team they faced. By: Anna Rungwerth

The football and basketball cheerleaders once again kicked off the season by traveling to Kent State University for Cheerleading Camp with Universal Cheerleading Association. The football squad had a record-breaking number of seniors, as Ali Wisniewski commented, "I really loved having nine upperclassmen on the squad. They were so nice to us, going to football dinners with all them was a big highlight!" The basketball squad had new coaches, Emmy Russel and Kristen Burk. As Lissa Domoracki noted, "The new coaches have brought more enthusiasm to our squads since they cheered at CFHS a few years ago." On February 5th the cheerleaders threw another successful Winter Formal with the theme of "A Night in New Orleans".

Nationally Recognized
Blue Ribbon School
2004

The students of Chagrin Falls High School continued to exert their academic excellence throughout the 2004-2005 school year. The school received an enormous honor this year as we were titled a 2004 National Blue Ribbon School. The No Child Left Behind Blue Ribbon Award recognizes schools that make significant academic progress or whose students achieve at superior levels. Chagrin was nominated for this award for scoring in the top ten percent on all of the state standardized tests. The school then completed an extensive application which was reviewed by the U.S. Department of Education, earning Chagrin Falls the award. The award was presented to Principal Hunt by Kristine Cohn, a representative of the U.S. Department of Education, on September 23, 2004. Assistant Principal Kurt Gabram comments on the students' academic success, "I'm very impressed with the attitude the students take toward their academics. Their continued over-achievement in the world of high-stakes testing, such as the OGT and Proficiency, proves their strong academic commitment. The Blue Ribbon award exemplified the academic success that will forever be a part of this school."

English

Tearing through the Pages

Creativity is a prominent theme of the English Department. The shift began with the introduction of a brand new creative writing class. The class was available to sophomores, juniors and seniors, and was a fun way to experience unique writing topics. For writing, teachers assigned extended research projects to the Sophomores and Seniors. For reading, a number of new books were added to the curriculum. The freshmen's addition was Speak, by Laurie Halse Anderson, while the sophomores added Tuesdays with Morrie, by Mitch Albom, and The Secret Life of Bee's, by Sue Monk Kidd. Creatively, the department can also always be counted on to win the spirit contests. English students and teachers also posted an impressive AP passing record. Seventy-nine of last year's English Language students, and eighty-seven of last year's English Literature students received an AP score of three or higher.

With the recent addition of AP Statistics the math department raised the bar, bringing the total to five AP math subjects. While worrying about the AP exams, students once again gathered for the early morning sessions to take the American Mathematics Competition as well as the Ohio Math League contests.

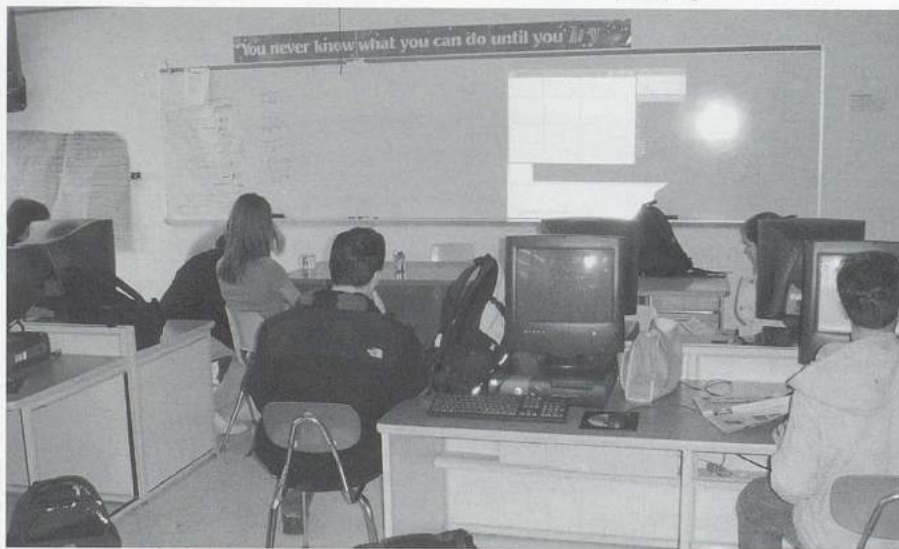

The retirement of Mr. Tolleson and Mrs. Henderson led to the arrival of Mr. Maas and Mr. Kerul. Both teachers were welcomed with open arms into the school. Mr. Maas took over the Calculus classes while Mr. Kerul took over the duty of the Algebra 2 classes.

Ms. Petite and her elite gained bragging rights when 100% of the Computer Science A students and 85% of the Computer Science AB students passed the AP exam. Mr. Tolleson led 62% of the Calculus AB students along with 100% of the Calculus BC students to passing, and the success of the math and computer department remained consistent.

Science Down & Dirty

As always, the science department succeeded in engaging students in various hands-on activities throughout the year. While Life Science Seminar classes attended field trips, Physics and Biology classes were busy completing various labs. These teaching techniques proved effective as seen through the high passage rate on the AP tests. AP Biology had a passage rate of 91%, AP Environmental Science 69%, and AP Physics 61%. These scores, along with the knowledge and experience that students have gained regarding the subject, made this year another success for the science department.

The language department had another successful year, emersed in the cultures of numerous countries worldwide. All three language programs continued their exceptional teaching from last year with high passing rates on the Advanced Placement tests. 100% of the AP German and AP French students passed, while 82% of the AP Spanish students passed. Language students also celebrated diversity during their participation in the Spanish and German Clubs. During the first semester, the Spanish Club travelled to Cleveland to enjoy authentic Spanish cuisine at the "Villa y Zapata" restaurant. After the meal, they learned to groove to traditional Spanish music during a Spanish dance lesson. For the past five years, the Spanish Club has traveled to Painesville to help numerous Mexican families. The project is always a great success. History Backtracking

With the election falling in the middle of the first semester, the history department had a thrilling year educating students on the elections, and even encouraging those old enough to get out and be heard. In addition to their teaching, the teachers took the election into their own hands and supported their respective views and parties. Although the election did not turn out as some of the teachers wished with George W. Bush's victory over John Kerry, the close finish fully explained the electoral system. In addition to this exciting time, the department also celebrated last year's success in the AP testing, with a 90% passing rate in the U.S. History test and an 80% rate in Government. 34 of the 56 students who took the tests received a 4 or 5. With a high standard in place, the department continued their excellence throughout the year.

Clubs

Volunteers, fundraisers, and dedicated students made up the members of the various clubs throughout the school this year. Key Club continued to build on its history of service by hosting the annual canned food drive in November. Members of Key Club also sponsored families for the Holidays, and regularly visited Hamlet Nursing Home. The Book Club, a new club this year, was organized to give students a forum for discussing books that were outside of the ones assigned to them in class. Every month or so, these students gather together to debate and share the ideas they developed while reading that month's book. The Spanish and German clubs participated in cultural activities respective to their language. These activities ranged from watching movies, listening to guest speakers, and attending ethnic field trips. There was never a lack of opportunities or activities for clubs, and they continued to be an integral part of the school's exciting environment.

life

The students of Chagrin Falls High School never fail to have a good time. This year was no exception. In the fall, the lighting of the particularly colorful bonfire began the festivities of Homecoming Week. Students danced the night away on Saturday, October 16 at the Homecoming Dance, where Meggi Howard proudly accepted the crown as Queen. Agatha Christie's "Appointment With Death" was successfully performed by a talented cast as the school's fall play production. The senior girls, led by high scorer Leah Grimm, upheld the tradition of victory with a 22-6 win against the junior girls in the annual Powderpuff game in November. Decked out in Mardi Gras beads and masks, students spent "A Night in New Orleans" at the Winter Formal dance, where Pat McCourt reigned as King. The students' especially active participation this year in Chagrin Falls student life contributed to fun and entertaining events to be remembered forever.

Allyson Sedlak

Thank goodness for my ugg boots!! I love them and Molly has a pair too!

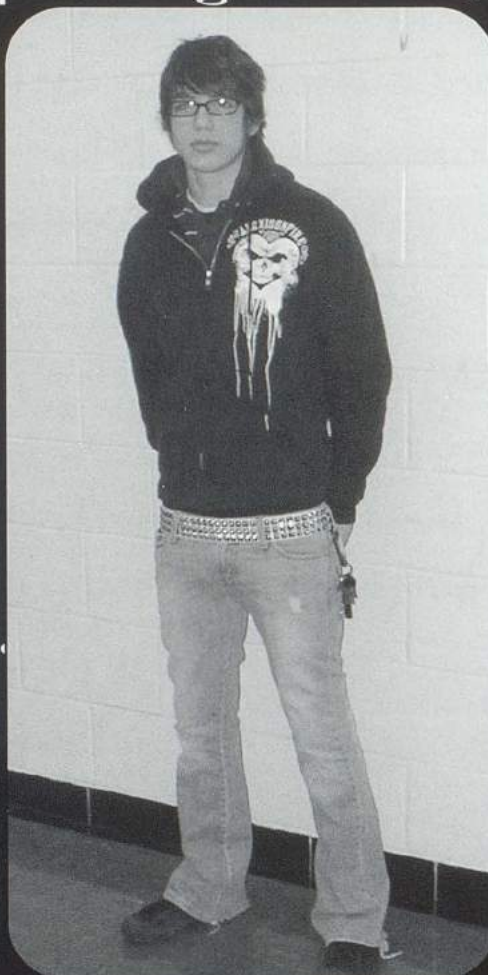

Greg: My dad wore boots like those during his daily two mile walk uphill in the snow...hopefully he didn't take the skirt.

Lindsay: Allyson's boots are amazing. They look so cute with the lacy skirt and the high socks. The argyle cardigan layered over the button-down shirt really completes the look.

Brian Marsh

Picture perfect is you dressed to kill in that pitiful disguise. Push up bra to dot the T's, cake on the make-up to cross the eyes.

Lindsay: Brian looks good with the contrasting white belt and black hoodie. Also, the jeans fit him really well.

Greg: I'm about to break down to a Ginuwine song after seeing those jeans. I should totally rock those.

Katie Kostura

W/o your own sense of style you are just like every one else, and that's no fun!

Greg: If that's not a long tee then her skirt and Napoleon's slacks share the same hikeage. Either way, it's a smooth look.

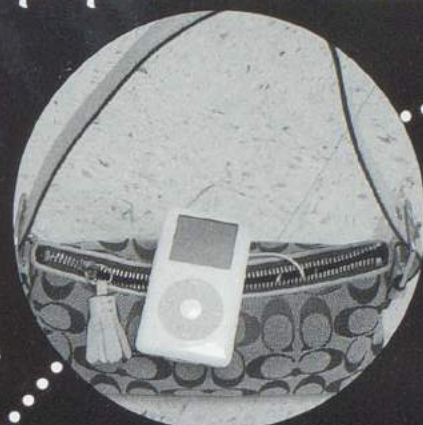

Lindsay: I like the dress thing over a pair of ripped jeans with a casual hoody; it's fashionable, yet relaxed.

Justin Fung

130 SPIRIT WEEK

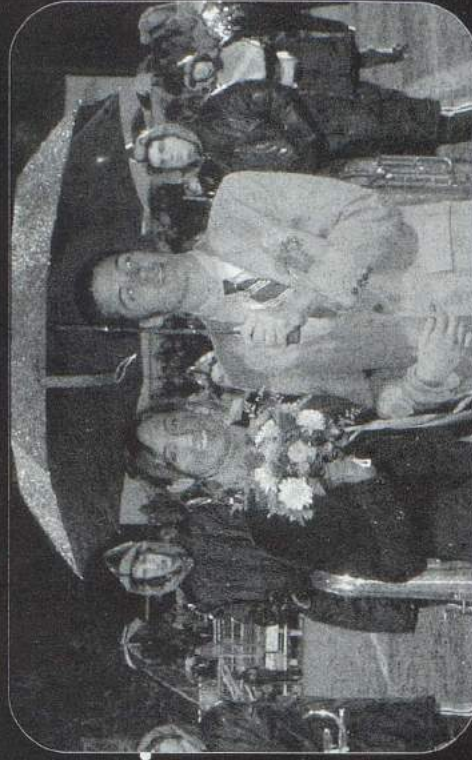

“Wow. What an incredible experience! Riding in the Homecoming Parade was a blast. I felt very proud to be wearing my soccer jersey. The bonfire was awesome. This year the girls were involved, and who didn't notice the colorful graffiti? (Who run it?) Being crowned Homecoming Queen was fun, too- we got free hot chocolate! It was certainly an honor I'll never forget. Also unforgettable was the weather. What a beautiful night...under the umbrella! The football team was amazing, as usual, and mowed West G. At the dance, I was one of the last people to leave because I didn't want it to end. It was hard watching my senior Homecoming weekend pass by so quickly.” -Meggi Howard

“Being an exchange student, finding out that I was voted as homecoming attendant was a complete shock. I was unsure of what it meant. However, my host mom told me she was a homecoming attendant as well and explained the great honor of it.” -Winnie Chen

▼ Colleen Koral, Lindsay Street, Kim Leary, Cassie Hauserman, and Kelsey Lodge enjoy their time at the dance together. ► A conga line forms on the dance floor.

"I think the best part of Homecoming would have to have been when I forgot the tickets. I thought it was pretty funny, but despite her best efforts, I don't think my date did. Maybe it's more of a guy thing to laugh at that sort of thing."

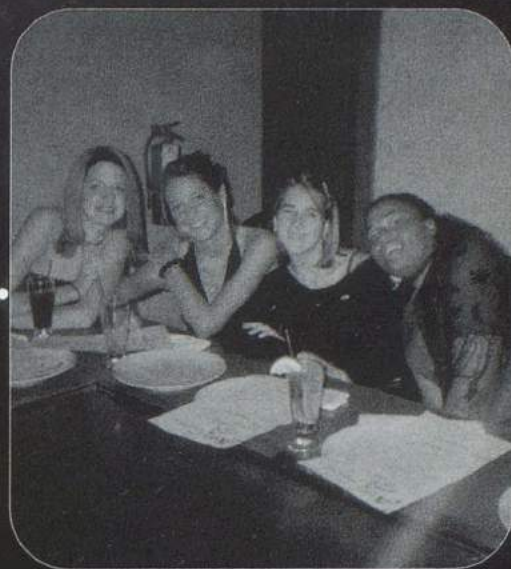

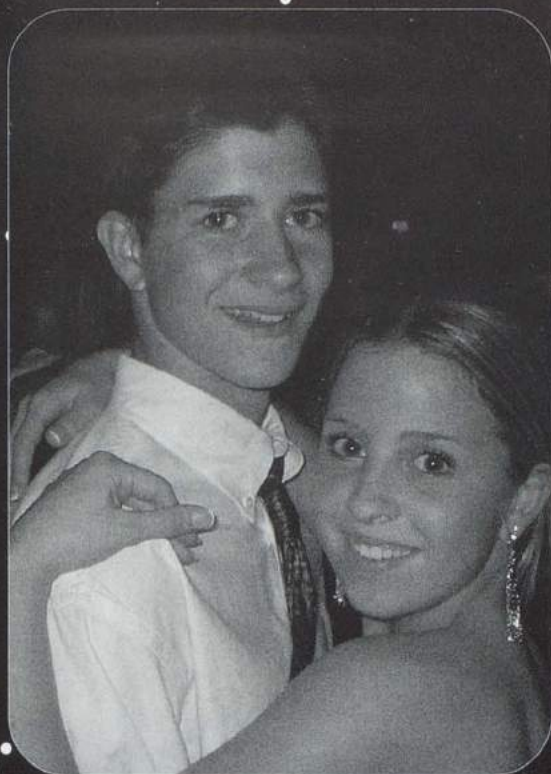

Zack Frey

My friends and I danced all night to the music while the videos of the songs were played on two huge screens. After the dance we kept the party going until we collapsed out of sheer exhaustion. Over all, Homecoming 2004 was a night I'll never forget!” -Cassie Palisky

Powder Puff

BY: COLLEEN KOVAL

▣ The game was a great matchup between the seniors and juniors. Even though the seniors blew the juniors away, I give them credit for putting up a great fight. It was intense until the final play and so much fun to be apart of. Thanks to the great coaching from the senior guys and awesome teamwork from the girls! ▣

◀ The two teams shake hands after the game. ▶ Leah Grimm runs tirelessly for the goal. ▼ Irish Sanders rushes past Sarah Pilkington.

“This year, as a coach, I wanted to get on that game field and address the issue right away, but first we had to put in the work. These senior women put in hours of work to get to that certain level of play that I demanded of them. In the first quarter of the game we used team speed to get outside. Leah Grimm was a force to be reckoned with: our tight ends, Lindsay Rawot and Meggi Howard, did a great job of sealing the ends. Our wide outs, Malerie Patsey and Lindsay Street, had some big blocks down field and Tori Harwell and Cassie Hauserman didn't miss one snap. On the other side of the ball our defense was relentless: Lea Trinetti came up with a huge interception that really took the wind out of the juniors' sails. All in all, we made plays when we had to. I almost felt bad for the juniors. Senior Dudes '05!”

“The powderpuff game to me was like a nightmare or a bad dream. I was trying to wake up, not wanting to see what was out there. I gotta give it up to Leah Grimm, they had a game plan and they stuck to it. We'll be back next year though.”

- Drew Ward

Winter FORMAL

BY: KAILA
LOCKHART &
HERMANSON

“From the start this dance was shaping up to be very chill. I was going with a beautiful girl and my group was awesome. The dinner was pretty crazy. It took four tables to seat the 20 people in our group. No time was wasted before the dance because we were psyched. I remember getting there and seeing the commons packed with a ton of dudes with their dates. Once again no time was wasted before we started shredding the floor. I was happy that the DJ played only top-notch hits and no phony square dance Cotton Eye Joe songs. When it came time to name the Winter Formal King I wasn't really nervous, not that I was sure I was going to win, but because my night was already so fun it was becoming a blur. I was really happy to win. I would like to thank all the dudes that voted for me, but most of all Bill Watson. Rock on Dudes. -Pat McCourt”

“Winter Formal was really fun. My group, which was about 14 kids, went to Stir Crazy for dinner. Dinner was a blast. When we got to the dance, there were tons of people there! The DJ was amazing also. I didn't think it was going to be that fun, but it turned out to be even better than Homecoming.”

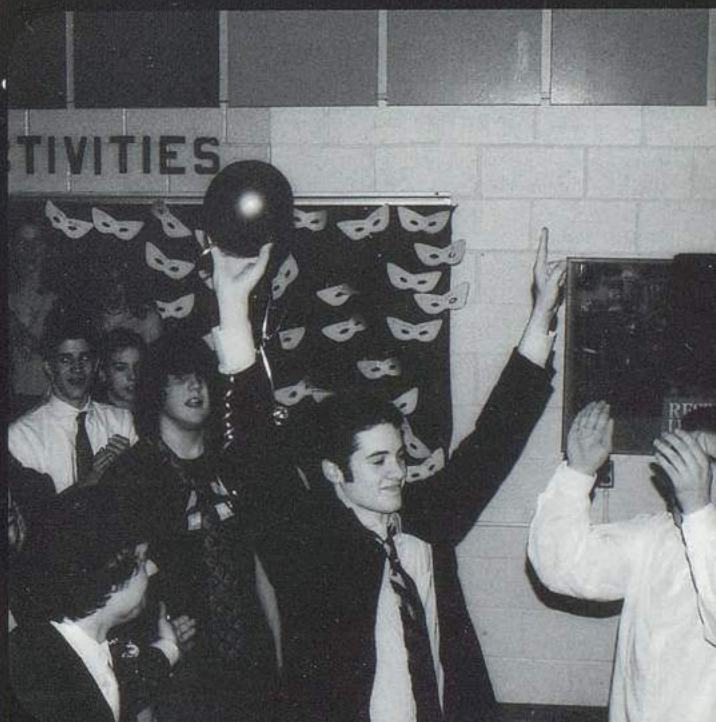

-Bridget Hildibrant

#32 MARK ZACHARY GEBLER

*Another turning point a fork stuck in the road,
Time grabs you by the wrists directs you where to go,
So make the best of this test and don't ask why,
It's not a question but a lesson learned in time*

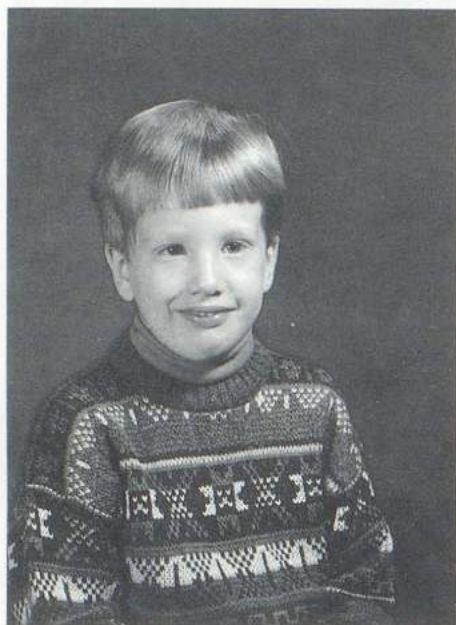

*So take the photographs and still frames in your mind,
Hang it on a shelf of good health and good time,
For what it's worth it was worth all the while,*

*It's something unpredictable,
But in the end it's right,
I hope you had the time of your life.*

All our love,

Mom and Dad

*Congratulations, Kevin !
We are so proud of you !
Thanks for all the memories !*

Secret O' Life

by James Taylor

The secret of life is enjoying the passage of time.

Any fool can do it, there ain't nothing to it.

Nobody knows how we got to the top of the hill.

But since we're on our way down, we might as well enjoy the ride.

The secret of love is in opening up your heart.

It's okay to feel afraid, but don't let that stand in your way.

Cause anyone knows that love is the only road.

And since we're only here for a while, might as well show some style. Give us a smile.

Isn't it a lovely ride? Sliding down, gliding down, try not to try too hard, it's just a lovely ride.

Jenna
 Your smile- cheers us!
 Your beauty- stuns us!
 Your personality- amuses us!
 Your laugh- tickles us!
 And your heart and soul- warm and inspire us!

We are so proud of you and all that you've accomplished. Never give up in life. We love you always and forever!
 Good luck in college-
 And always remember-
 You never, ever, say shut-up!!
 All our love,
 Mom, Dad, Jill and John

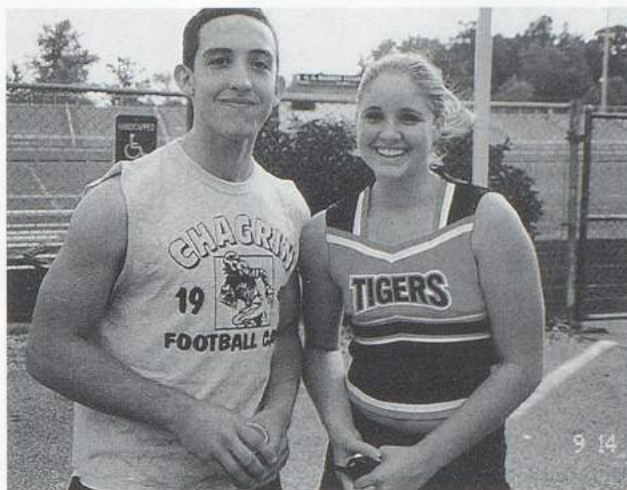

It all happened way too fast...

*From the Keystone state to the Hoosier prairie to the North Coast, you've been the light of our lives!
 Congratulations, Allie!

Holly and Spencer-
Seniors....hard to believe!!
You bring us so much joy, each in your own way. We are extremely proud of you both! It's going to be very hard letting you go in just a few months. Please remember how much you are loved and know that we will always be rooting for you!! Mom and Dad

DAVID,

We are so proud of you!

Congratulations, Kyle!

We are so proud of you.
Thanks for everything you have given us
And may your journey bring you happiness.

All our love, Mom, Dad, Laura, and Ashley

It's really good to see you rocking out,
And having fun,
Living like you've just begun.
Accept your life and what it brings
I know tomorrow you'll find better things

I know you've got a lot of good things happening up a head,
The past is gone it's all been said.
So here's to what the future brings,
I know tomorrow you'll find better things.

-Ray Davies (The Kinks)

ELIN -- "Special" is a word that is used to describe something one-of-a-kind like a hug or a sunset or a person who spreads love with a smile or kind gesture. "Special" describes people who act from the heart and keep in mind the hearts of others. "Special" applies to something that is admired and precious and which can never be replaced. "Special" is the word that best describes you.

With All of Our Love, Mom, Dad and Abby

Happiness is a journey, not a destination....

Souza

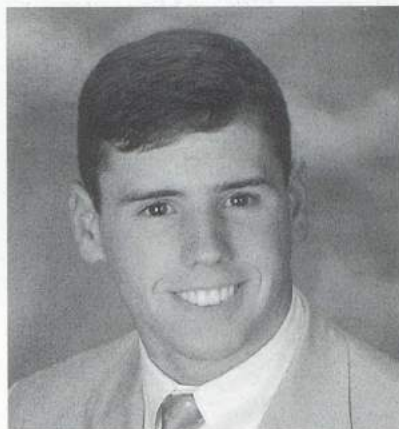

For a long time it seemed that life was about to begin - real life. But there was always some obstacle in the way, something to be gotten through, some unfinished business, time still to be served, a debt to be paid. At last it dawned on me that these obstacles were my life. This perspective has helped me to see there is no way to happiness. Happiness is the way. So treasure every moment you have and remember that time waits for no one.

Sarahbear,
Your journey

Meggi- You couldn't have made this journey any more fun!
Love, Dad, Mom, Jeb '01, and Caitlin '02

We prayed for a daughter with twinkly bright eyes,
 And God sent us you, dear, and oh was He wise!
 He sent us a child to cuddle and hold,
 With Soft, rosy cheeks and a heart made of gold.
 We dressed you in pink, and curled your sweet locks,
 Bought black patent shoes and lacey-edged socks.
 You've grown too quickly
 Those years surely flew,
 And we thought we should mention our feelings to you.
 To tell you that daughter God sent us my dear,
 Has grown much more precious and sweet year by year.
 You make us so proud when we gaze in your eyes!
 We wish you the best that life can bring,
 Love and happiness among those things.
 Enjoy the journey!!!!

Love, Mom, Dad, Keith and Lindsay

Dear Morgan,
 May you always follow
 your heart and trust
 your abilities, knowing that those who love and believe in you find so much joy in the wonderful person you are.
 Love you forever,

Sara-
You are a very special person. Thanks for being a great daughter, a wonderful sister and a caring friend. Keep on smiling and laughing! We will all miss you so much.
Love you lots-
Dad, Mom, Janie, Judy, Megan and Butterfly

Allyson,
Congratulations on four great years. Good luck in everything you do and may you shine in your years to come. Dad, Mom, Ned, and Julie

What Would You Do if...

BY: ALLIE HOLLISTER

You were being chased by a Tiger?

"I would zig and zag at full speed." -Lea Trinetti

"Are you serious? I run the '40' in 3.5 seconds."
-Josh Menendez

"I would drop into the fetal position and then take it like a man." -Jay Press

"I would tell it to do the tiger rumble." -Libby Takacs

"I would challenge all oncomers to a royal cage fight. BRING IT ON!" -Jeff Hymer

Someone tried to force you to live in a Cage?

"I'd ask 'Why'?"
-Pat Devine

"I wouldn't mind it. You'd have, like, no responsibilities. You'd just be, like, 'Hey! I live in a cage!' -Caitlin Carleton

"I'd stop, drop, and roll." -Taylor Meyer

You were stranded in a dark Forest?

"Make a hammock and take a nap." -Halle Sell

"I would walk around and look for light and food or possible other intelligent life forms."

-Charlie Pugsley

"I would build a treehouse and attempt to live my wildest fantasies?"

-Jon Campbell

COLOPHON

The 2005 Zenith was printed by Herff Jones Yearbooks of Shawnee Mission, Kansas. Press run was 525 copies. John Fowley served as the company representative. Melanie Hoffmann and Stefanie Ashkettle advised the publication. Theme concept was created by Greg Walden. The cover with tiger stripe design was designed by senior staff members Allie Hollister, Greg Walden, Justin Wise, and Colleen Koval. Special thanks to Brian Manchen for designing the Senior Favorites Picture. Thank you to Ripcho Studios for Sports Photography. Text paper used was Bordeaux. The headlines used in the division papers and closing were created using Pagemaker 7.0 on Dell GX110. Zenith sold for $50.00. The book is 184 pages.
